LONDON MYSTERY STILL BAFFLING

Little Progress Yesterday in Investigation of the Dr. Crippen Case.

NOT YET ARRIVED THIS SIDE

Incoming Steamers Being Closely Watched—Manner of Death is Uncertain—Analyses Being Continued—Notes.

London, July 15.—The police of London are without any clue as to the whereabouts of Dr. Hawley H. Crippen, or Ethel Clara Leneve, his typist, whom they are seeking in the belief that they may be able to clear up the mystery surrounding the finding of a body of a woman which was found badly mutilated in the cellar of the doctor's home in Hilldroop Crescent, Nrth London.

The police and the detectives of Scotland Yard still are of the belief that the dead woman was the wife of Dr. Cripplen and that she was murdered and buried in the cellar in the hope of hiding the crime.

A woman shop keeper today told the police that some time ago—possibly four or five months—she had heard, apparently in the Crippen home, the screams of a woman followed by a revolver shot. Mrs. Cripplen was last seen in February.

A three hours' post mortem examination of the body by an expert of the home office tonighet proved inconclusive as to the cause of the death of the woman. Her head, the lower limbs and most of the bones, are missing, but there are some indications, such as portions of clothing and a necklace adhering to the flesh of the neck, that the woman might have been strangled in her sleep. The internal organs will be subjected to further analysis.

In addition to their search for Crippen and Miss Leneve, Superintendent Froest and his force of Scotland Yard detectives are investigating the circumstances surrounding the death of Crippen's first wife.

New York, July 15.—Disappointment today in their search of the Lusitania for Dr. Crippen, the police were still confident tonight that he is somewhere on the high seas, bound for this country—a view in which his wife's family share.

Mrs. Theresa Hunn, a sister of Belle Elmore, said tonight:

"I think the doctor fled for Southampton as soon as he heard that Scotland Yard was looking for him. It is doubtful if he would have tried the continent, for the London police are in close touch with all the capitals of Europe and a foreigner is always conspicuous."

The St. Paul is due here from Southampton tomorrow and the Cedric from Liverpool and the Cleveland from Southampton on Sunday. The three liners will be searched carefully.

FIRE INSURANCE AGENTS.

Association of South Carolina in Session at Columbia.

Columbia, S. C., July 14.—President James S. Cofield, of Spartanburg, addressing the South Carolina Association of Fire Insurance Agents at the first session of their annual two days' convention here today urged members tf either get together and refuse to sign the agreement not to accept commissions higher than 15 per cent. or else ask their companies to release them from this limitation. The increased cost of living was strongly stressed as a reason for higher commissions.

Commissioner Fitzhugh McMaster, of the State Insurance Department, pleaded for better building construction and more efficient inspection.

LOUISVILLE BANK CASE.

President Will be Asked for Resignation When Affairs Are Straight.

Louisville, Ky., July 15.—When told of a report current that John W. Barr, president of the Fidelity Trust Company, will be requested for his resignation by the directors after an additional issue of $1,000,000 worth of stock is floated and arrangements made to cover the loss sustained by the alleged shortage of August Ropke, assistant secretary; John Stites, chairman of the board of directors, said: "I don't care to make a statement about that."

The examination of the books of the company still continues by the experts and it was announced that likely it will be several days before a statement will be issued concerning the losses.

HOOKWORM FIGHT

Alabama Added to List For Active Campaign.

Montgomery, Ala., July 15.—As a result of a conference between the board of health and Dr. Wickliffe Rose, of the Rockefeller hookworm commission, State Health Officer Sanders announced today Alabama will be added to the list of States actively in the fight on the "lay worm" as soon as three men now being negotiated with can be secured. The fielding service is to be directed from the capital under the auspices of the State board.

PERSONAL STRIFE IN NAVY SETTLED

Department Sends Letters of Censure to Officers of Marine Corps.

COURT OF INQUIRY RESULT

Climax Reached and No Further Judicial Proceedings Are Expected. As to Gen. Elliott's Action. Officers Are Named.

Washington, July 15.—The personal strife among the officers of the United States Marine Corps today reached a climax when the Navy Department, as the result of a court of inquiry, sent letters of censure to nearly all the officers concerned. No further judicial proceedings are contemplated.

The censured officers are Major Gen. George F. Elliott, commandant of the corps; Col. Charles H. Lauchheimer, adjutant and inspector; Col. Frank L. Denny, the quartermaster at Washington; Col. Charles A. Doyden, commanding the marine barracks at the Naval Academy at Annapolis; Lieut. Col. Thomas C. Prince, assistant quartermaster at Washington; Lieut. Col. Henry C. Haines, assistant adjutant and inspector at Washington; and Majors Louis J. Magill and David D. Porter, assistant adjutants and inspectors at Philadelphia and Washington, respectively.

The court held that General Elliott had been profane, irritable and irascible at times indulging moderately in intoxicating liquor, but never intoxicated on duty, and sometimes failed to treat subordinates with courtesy, but was usually polite, generous, truthful and a "plain, blunt soldier, open and frank". General Elliott was paid a tribute by the court for telling the whole truth "even to his whole detriment, if he thought the facts had the least bearing on the question."

"He was suspicious," added the court, "of the adjutant and inspector, his assistants and some others and unjustly believed they were trying to drive him from office. What added greatly to his irritability was a disease of the right ear, which infirmity does not appear to have been generally known to his subordinates. He worked for the good of the service and accomplished much but failed to maintain discipline at headquarters and to enforce proper respect for himself in office."

Col. Lauchheimer, according to the court, had violated the spirit, but not the letter of the regulations requiring subordination and loyalty, had been unmilitary, disrespectful and insubordinate and had made general instead of specific reports against his superior officer. But, on the other hand, Col. Lauchheimer was declared to be capable and efficient officer and one who was frequently consulted by General Elliott. Col. Lauchheimer has been on his present duty since December, 1904.

Among other things he was charged with evincing no desire to assist the court in ascertaining the facts, except in his own interests, though he answered specific questions.

Col. Denny was held to have purposely and intentionally evaded answering questions on a subject of which he had full knowledge. As to Col. Doyen, the court found that he showed a remarkable failure to display the proper respect and subordination due to his commandant.

The court found generally that the difficulties had arisen from a radical difference of policy between General Elliott and Col. Lauchheimer, through the former's lack of firmness, consistency in language and deportment and a too long tenure of office of officers in the adjutants, inspectors and quartermasters' departments, resulting in lax ideas of subordination, and military ethics and lack of professional and military experience.

The inquiry of which this wholesale action was the outcome was ordered as the result of the suspension by Gen. Elliott of Col. Lauchheimer for five days on a charge that he had been "keeping tab" on Elliott's personal conduct. Col. Lauchheimer then sought the court of inquiry, which set for six months, hearing testimony.

At the bottom of the dissension in the corps is said to have been the question of the successorship of General Elliott when he retire in October, the fight being between officers of the line and of the staff.

RUSSIA AND JAPAN.

Further Negotiations as to Treaty Between the Countries.

Peking, July 15.—In acknowledging the receipt of the text of the Russo-Japanese convention which was presented to the foreign office by the diplomatic representatives of the contracting parties yesterday, China will express her satisfaction over the avowed purpose of Russia and Japan to adhere to the terms of the Portsmouth treaty. The government will further express pleasure over the mutual pledge for the maintenance in Manchuria of the status quo and the principle of the open door for commercial development

WOODROW WILSON NOW IN POLITICS

Princeton's President After Governorship of State of New Jersey.

WANTS DEMOCRATS TO ACT

Must be Convinced That Majority of Party Sincerely Desire Him to Run—Responds to Popular Clamor in His State.

Newark, N. J., July 15.—President Woodrow Wilson, of Princeton University, announced today that he will accept the Democratic nomination for Governor of this State if he is convinced that a majority of the party sincerely desires him to run.

In a formal statement dated at his Summer home in Lyme, Conn., and published in the Newark News this afternoon over his signature, President Wilson thus defines his attitude:

"There has recently been so much talk of the possibility of my being nominated by the Democrats of New Jersey for Governorship of the State and I have been asked by so many persons whom I respect what my attitude would be toward such a nomination that it would be an affectation and discourtesy on my part to ignore the matter any longer.

"I need not say that I am in no sense a candidate for the nomination and that I would not under any circumstances do anything to obtain it. My present duties and responsibilities are such as should satisfy any man desirous of rendering public service. They certainly satisfy me and I do not wish to draw away from them.

"But my wish does not constitute my duty and if it should turn out to be true, as so many well informed persons have assured me they believe it will, that it is the wish and hope of a decided majority of the thoughtful Democrats of the State that I should consent to accept the party's nomination for the great office of Governor, I shall deem it my duty, as well as an honor and a privilege to do so.

"I cannot and do not venture to assume that this is the case. It remains to be seen whether it is or not. I should not feel personally disappointed if it should turn out otherwise. But it is clearly due to the many public men and the many representatives of the public press who have urged me to say how I feel about this very important matter that I should make this statement rather than seem to avoid their legitimate inquiries."

MASSACHUSETTS TEAM WON

Result of New England Inter-State Match—Other Events.

Wakefield, Mass., July 14.—The Massachusetts team won the New England inter-state match at the Bay State Range today for the sixth consecutive year, defeating the Maine and New Hampshire teams, the only other entries, by a comfortable margin. The all-American match, also completed today after two days of shooting, was won by the first navy team with a margin of 51 over the marine corps. The scores made by the three State teams in the inter-state match, were allowed to count in the all-American match, but the Massachusetts teams could get no better than fourth position. These matches were the big events of the week with the range and attracted a large number of marksmen from all over the country.

New York, July 15.—Twenty-five persons were injured in an accident on the Manhattan approach of the Queensborough bridge over the east river today when a crowded car from North Beach with a theatrical party aboard, crashed into the rear of a Flushing car. All of the injured will recover.

Wade Ellis For Chairman Republican Campaign

Copyright, 1910, by American Press Association.

Columbus, O., July 15.—From official trust buster to Ohio manager for President Taft, Wade H. Ellis, according to a story circulated in Beverly, Mass., and passed on to this city may be seeking a common everyday job as a lawyer soon. Mr. Ellis has a reputation as a lawyer and has refused many good offers, his friends say, to stay with the Taft forces. When Ellis resigned from the attorney general's office to take full swing in Ohio political affairs it was agreed that he was being slated for the next chairmanship of the Republican National committee. If Ellis retires from Ohio politics, as it is insisted he will do, he will either take up the practice of law in Cincinnati, or go after the job of national chairman. This latter position is the one he wants, his friends say.

BILLION SPENT IN BUILDING

Amount Invested in 128 Cities of United States During Year 1909—Recovered From Financial Panic—Statistics.

Washington, July 15.—Building operations in 128 cities of the United States during the calendar year 1909, represented expenditures close to a billion dollars—or to be exact, according to statistics compiled by the United States Geological Survey, $930,520,713.

That result is taken to be one of the principal indications that during 1909 the country recovered from the financial panic of 1907 and 1908, for the building record for 1906 was beaten 10 per cent. A comparison of increases and decreases of the operations of 1909 with those of 1908 is held to be unreasonable, because it is said, 1908 was not a normal year. However, Chicago, which led the increases in 1908 with a little more than eight million dollars, led them again in 1909 with an increase of more than twenty-eight millions. New York, which was second in 1908 with an increase of a little more than four millions reported an increase for 1909 of sixty-eight millions. Brooklyn which had reported a decrease of more than twenty-five millions in 1908 came third in the 1909 increases with a growth of $18,402,061.

Of the cities that showed decreases in 1909, San Francisco had the largest, $5,484,273, or 17.32 per cent.; Dayton was next, with $1,533,780, or 47.42 per cent. the largest proportional decrease; and Oakland was third, with $1,002,051 per cent. The decreases in these cities may be ascribed to local causes.

The explanation of the decrease in San Francisco, which at first glance may be surprising when it is recalled that they apply to a city not long ago almost destroyed by an earthquake, is that the building in San Francisco has probably reached a point nearly normal, for the first time since the catastrophe of 1906. The annual cost of building operations for five years in San Francisco was: 1905, $18,268,753; 1906, $34,927,396; 1907, $56,574,844; 1908, $31,668,341; 1909, $26,184,068.

New York in 1909, had the greatest number of new brick buildings; Chicago took the lead in stone structures. She also led in concrete buildings, which were reported to be 1,791, in number in 79 of the 128 cities reporting, a considerable gain which is taken to show the growing use of that material.

Seattle had the largest number of new wooden buildings. Chicago, however, built wooden buildings which cost more and they alone were valued at more than thirteen millions while Seattle first in numbers, was third in values. Reading, Pa., was the only city that reported no wooden buildings erected.

New York reported the construction of fire-resisting buildings at a cost of $181,918,337; Chicago was second, with a cost of $79,105,500; Brooklyn third,

PEACE WILL REIGN SUPREME

No Possibility of Differences Between United States and Japan—Banquet Given Secretary Dickinson by Minister.

London, July 15.—"Unhappily forces for evil, for unknown but sinister purposes, constantly are endeavoring by false reports or other methods to create conditions of ill-will or distrust between two neighboring peoples. Their relations are too firmly established and their interests too distinct to admit of the possibility of any question arising between Japan and the United States which will not yield readily to the ordinary processes of diplomacy. The increased and more intimate exchanges of views between the two governments dispel all apprehensions on that score."

This forceful atterance was made tonight by Foreign Minister Count Komura, in toasting J. M. Dickinson, the American Secretary of War, at a banquet given by Count Komura in his honor. Mr. Dickinson and his party arrived at Yokohama this afternoon on board the steamer Siberia and after an informal reception at the American consulate there, came on to Tokio for tonight's function.

The dinner was a brilliant affair. Eighty persons attended, including Marquis Katsura, the Japanese prime minister, and five members of the cabinet; admirals, generals and officials. After toasts to President Taft and the Emperor had been proposed respectively by Count Komura and Thomas J. O'Brien, the American ambassador, Count Komura, in proposing the health of Mr. Dickinson, referred to previous visits to Japan of President Taft.

"These visits I recall," said the foreign minister, "not only because his personality endeared him to all, but because his insight and calm judgment enabled him to appreciate the true value of the sentiments entertained by Japan for America."

Mr. Dickinson, in responding after a warm expression of his gratitude for the hospitality accorded him, declared that Count Komura had analyzed accurately President Taft and the people of the United States and said it was fortunate that there would be found at the head of affairs in America a man possessing keen knowledge of the Far East.

"There is no reason for a breach of friendship between the United States and Japan," continued Mr. Dickinson.

"Sound judgment must predominate. False reports or evil suggestions have not been justified by any action either of Japan or America. My country desires and is advocating peace and arbitration perhaps more than any nation of the world. There is reason to believe that Japan and America with the passing of years will become more closely cemented in the bonds of abiding friendship."

Mr. Dickinson and his party, who are guests of the American ambassador, will be given an audience by Emperor Mutsuhito tomorrow morning and the ladies afterward will be received by the Empress. This will be followed by a juncheon at the palace and a dinner and reception at the American embassy in the evening.

GUFFEY FAILURE IN PENNSYLVANIA

Property of Multi-Millionaire Oil Man Goes Into Hands of Receiver.

WAS A LEADER IN POLITICS

His Indebtedness Amounts to $6,700,000 With Assets of Over $17,000,000—Has Interests in West Virginia—Details.

Pittsburg, July 15.—Colonel James M. Guffey, National Democratic Committeeman, of Pennsylvania, who figured so prominently as an object of attack by the Bryan adherents at the last National Democratic Convention in Denver—a multi-millionaire oil man—has gone into the hands of a receiver, which was appointed late today by Judge Joseph M Swearingen in the common pleas court of this county. The action was taken upon a bill in equity filed by J. H. Galey, and John S. Willard, who is familiar with colonel Guffey's affairs, was named as receiver.

The bill filed alleges that Colonel Guney's indebtedness is about $6,700,000, of which about $950,000 is unsecured, that the defendant has no ready money with which to meet the payments due, and that certain creditors are threatening to sell his collaterals and enter suits.

It is further asserted that Colonel Guffey has assets of over $17,000,000, a large part of which is stock of the J. M. Guffey Company and the West Virginia Company, two coal companies which own 136,700 acres of cooking coal in the State of West Virginia. The properties are asserted to be worth at least $15,000,000, and the bill in equity maintains that they are estimated to contain two billion tons of coal which, at a profit of one cent per ton, would realize $20,000,000. Other assets of Colonel Guffey to the value of two or three millions consists of stocks and bonds of other corporations.

All of these stocks and bonds are pledged as collateral and the receivership was found necessary to prevent a sacrifice of this collateral. The order of court restrains all creditors of disposing of any of the collateral securities or other assets of Colonel Guffey pending further order of the court. Colonel Guffey said to the Associated Press tonight:

"I very much regret that to conserve all of my estates a receivership became necessary. This course affords absolute protection for all of my obligations, as well as protection for myself.

"My assets are more than double the amout of my obligations. I don't expect the receiverships to continue any length of time. I have properties of great value and it is only a question of being permitted to dispose of them, without sacrifice to pay all my obligations."

HAD $40,000 IN CHECKS.

Newport, Tenn., Man Arrested in Chicago—Spartanburg Bank.

Chicago, July 15.—William S. Clark, of Newport, Tenn., was arrested today after unsuccessfully attempting to deposit $40,000 of alleged fraudulent cashier's checks—drawn on the Spartanburg, S. C., National Bank—at the Bank of the Illinois Trust and Savings Company here. The police say they found $17,000 of these checks on Clark's person when he was searched.

Clark is reported to have made a confession in which he is quoted as saying that he intended drawing interest on the check deposits to open a line of wheat deals.

Clark was masquerading under the name "A. R. Swan" and carried a letter of introduction from the Newport, Tenn., Produce Company, bearing the names of D. G. Allen and F. S. Fine. The police say the letter is a forgery. The men whose names Clark used are believed to be old friends of Clark's. Clark is 38 years old and says he was for 20 years employed in the telegraph department of the Southern Railroad.

BIG STEAMER ASHORE.

Ran Aground Yesterday on Japanese Coast

Yokohama, July 15.—The Pacific mail steamer Mongolia from Hong Kong to San Francisco, ran ashore today off Shimoda, on the island of Hondo at the southern end of the peninsula of Idzu.

The Mongolia is a twin screw steamer of 13,139 tons. She grounded on a reef of Midway Island on Sept. 5th last and was floated six days later. On April 22nd she ran aground near Mayeda lighthouse in the province of Nagato, Japan, but was floated the same evening without having sustained serious damage.

Alexandria, La., July 15.—Said to be the fourth member of his family to lose his life as a result of a railroad accident, David Coleman, a young white man of Fordyce, Ark., who was struck by a log train at Packton, Wednesday, died here last night. His body was shipped to Fordyce today.

DENTISTS E... THEIR OFF...

Dr. Arthur H. Fleming, Louisburg, is Chosen as President.

MOREHEAD CITY GETS NEXT

Dr. J. W. Stanley, of This City is Named as Secretary—Brilliant Dance Last Night—Third Day's Sessions.

Preceding an attractive and elaborate dance at Lumina, given in honor of the visitors by the Tidewater Power Company, the North Carolina Dental Society, in session at Seashore Hotel, Wrightsville Beach, held a brief business session last night for the purpose of electing officers for the ensuing year and selecting the place of next meeting, it being necessary to change the programme slightly in order to dispose of all the matters before the organization in the time appointed. The election of officers resulted as follows:

President—Dr. Arthur Hynes Fleming, Louisburg.

First Vice President—Dr. J. R. Edmondson, Wilson.

Second Vice President—Dr. R. E. Ware, Shelby.

Secretary—Dr. J. W. Stanley, Wilmington.

Treasurer—Dr. R. M. Morrow, Burlington.

Essayist—Dr. I. H. Davis, Oxford.

Dr. J. H. Wheeler, of Greensboro, and Dr. J. S. Spurgeon, of Hillsboro, were elected to succeed themselves as members of the State Board of Dental Examiners, their terms having expired with this session of the society.

Invitations for the next meeting were received from Winston-Salem, Asheville and Morehead City. The members of the society favored meeting at a seaside resort again next year and accepted the invitation of Morehead City.

Dr. Stanley is in line for the presidency of the society, it being the usual custom to elect the secretary as president at the meeting at which his term as secretary expires.

Morning Session.

The morning session convened at 9:30 o'clock with Dr. Watkins, the president, presiding, and the hall well filled with delegates and other visiting dentists. Thirteen new members were admitted to the society upon recommendation of the executive committee, Dr. D. L. James, of Greenville, chairman, as follows: Drs. M. H. P. Clark, F. G. Gower, F. D. Webb, J. T. McRocken, S. W. Gregory, W. T. Martin, C. E. Vitou, L. B. McCotter, P. L. Pegram, L. G. Coble, C. S. Boyette, Ingold and C. H. Mcinally.

Dr. J. S. Spurgeon, of Hillsboro, introduced a set of resolutions regarding the good roads movement, being similar to those adopted by all the other important associations that have held their meetings at Wrightsville Beach this year. The resolutions endorse the proposition to have the State give aid to the Geological and Economic Survey by providing a sufficient number of engineers to aid in road surveys; endorsed the proposition to use convict labor, and favors the proposition to have the State appropriate at least $250,000 annually for good roads, the counties sharing in the distribution of this sum to provide twice as much as the State may furnish for good roads. Good roads is a matter in which the society is very much interested and the resolutions were unanimously adopted.

It was decided to increase the annual dues from $3 to $4, the extra amount to be used in prosecuting the work of the organization. The executive committee was authorized to invite dentists from other States to deliver addresses and to hold clinics at the annual meetings.

Dr. Joel D. Whitaker, of Raleigh, read the first paper of the morning, his subject being, "Effect of Adenoids on Orthodontia," which was interesting and instructive. The general discussion which followed was led by Dr. J. H. Wheeler, of Greensboro.

Dr. F. O. Foster, of Atlanta, Ga., an honorary member of the North Carolina Society, addressed the dentists on "The Fine Art of Cleanliness as Applied to the Dental Profession," handling his subject in a most enlightening and entertaining manner. He offered many suggestions that will be of value to the members of the profession.

Dr. T. O. Heathwole, professor of materia medica, University of Maryland, Dental Department, read a most valuable paper on "A New Use of Old Drugs," showing in a most convincing way the value of ergot in controlling hemorrhages which frequently follow the extraction of teeth. He told of a number of cases in which ergot proved itself of inestimable value. Many dentists who have not been using this drug stated that they intended to use it in the future.

Dr. V. E. Turner, of Raleigh, read a sketch of the life and work of Dr. E. L. Hunter, who passed away at Fayetteville; followed by a paper, "Cause of the Decay of Teeth," Dr. H. N. Simpson, Stoneville; paper, "What Local Effect on Children's Teeth Does the Eating of Sweets Have?" Dr. S. A. Visanska, Atlanta, Ga. This concluded the morning session.

A short business session was held

...mington and Wilson split even in a double-header at League Park yesterday afternoon, the visitors taking the first one to nothing and the locals having captured the second—a five-inning contest—five to nothing. The games were interfered with by lowering clouds which brought forth darkness and at times there were showers of rain, which made satisfactory playing well nigh impossible.

Hanks and Kite and Stewart and Westlake did the battery stunt for the respective teams and the first opened with a single for D. McGehan through second, a steal and an advance to third on wild pitch. Then after Jacobs flew to third and Westlake was out third to first, McGehan scored, Miller being out second to first. Tydeman got his single for Wilmington and stole second, but otherwise there was nothing doing for the Sailors in the first.

Each team was out in order in the second and the same was true of the third, except that Kite opened the Wilmington frame with a bingle to left and was sacrificed by Hanks, but the next two were out from the infield. Miller for Wilson bingled in the fourth and Rushworth got a constitutional for Wilmington, but otherwise nothing doing. Four wide ones to Sharpe and life on an error for Kite in the fifth was all and the sixth came on with nothing doing until two were down in Wilmington's half, when Mills drove to right for two bases, but Rushworth followed with a fly to third. Manager Kite got another safety in the seventh after two were down, but Hanks flew to third. The eighth was blank but in the ninth Jacobs drove to centre with one down and stole second but the next two were easy. The ninth was prolific of nothing.

Second Game.

In the second game Brooks and Kite and Foreman and Westlake were the batteries, Wilmington's five runs having come in the fifth. Wilson was out in order in the first while for Wilmington Clapp was given life on error at first, was sacrificed by Dubbs, Tydeman flying to short; Mills then went to second on third strike, which got away from Westlake, Clapp being safe on third, but Rushworth ethered.

Miller started the second with a single and went to second on passed ball while Sheridan was hit, Brooks pulling himself out of the hole by fanning C. McGehan, popping Armstrong out to short and retiring Sharp third to first. Kite and Brooks bunched singles in Wilmington's half after two were down but Clapp flew to second. Bath teams were one one, two, three in the third and in the fourth after Westlake was out Mills to Brooks and Miller third to first, Sheridan was hit by a pitched ball and went to third on wild throw to first, C. McGehan walking in the meantime and Sheridan being caught on an attempted squeeze, catcher to second. In the fourth after Rushworth fanned and Lynch was out second to first, Cooper singled to centre, Lynch running for him. Kite followed with another safety and Lynch stole third, but Brooks flew to right.

At this stage of the game time was called for 30 minutes and upon the resumption of the game Armstrong fanned, Sharp was out short to first, and Foreman flew to short. Wilmington started the fifth when Clapp singled to right but was caught off first. Dubbs then singled down third base line and stole second; Tydemann then hit to left and went to second on throw-in, Dubbs on third; Mills drew four wide ones, Rushworth stood still while four more came over, forcing Dubbs over the rubber; Lynch bunted safely scoring Tydeman and Mills and Rushworth advanced. The game had to be called again for 30 minutes on account of rain. Upon the resumption of the game, Cooper started to first on a strike which he thought was a ball and the catcher threw to second to catch Lynch, the second baseman missing the ball, while three men came over the rubber, Kite ending it all by fanning.

Wilson only got her half of the sixth when the game had to be called on account of darkness. D. McGehan fanned, Jacobs singled to centre, Westlake to right, but Miller flew to short.

THREE CUSHION LEAGUE

Johnny Kling Perfects Organization For Billiard Honors.

New York, July 16.—Johnny Kling, catcher of the Chicago Club, has perfected the organization of the National Amateur Three Cushion League, which will take its place in the billiard world next November. The new league's circuit will include eight cities—Kansas City, Chicago, St. Louis and Pittsburg in the West, and New York, Brooklyn, Boston and Philadelphia in the East. Kling has been working for such an association ever since he joined the Chicago club this spring. While in the East on the Cubs' last trip, he rounded up the foud cities from this section of the country, then succeeded in interesting Pittsburg. Last week he secured the promise of St. Louis billiardists to go into the organization. A meeting will be held at the close of the baseball season, when officers will be elected.

Kling already has made out a schedule which probably w... be followed. The season will open the first day of November and close on April 6. Four teams will be engaged in the opening series, ...ansas City playing at Pittsburg and Boston at New York.

WADESBORO-LAURINBURG

Doubleheader There Yesterday Afternoon—Teams Split Even.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Lauringburg, N. C., July 15.—The first games of ball on the home diamond within ten days were played today. The first game was called at 10 A. M. and featured in length. It was taken by Laurinburg by a score of four to five. The batteries were Jones and LaJoyce, Mitchell and Howe. The afternoon game was better but abounded in errors. Errors lost the game. Stafford was the locals allowed only one hit which amounted to nothing. Reis was in fine shape and allowed only three hits. Afternoon Score.

New York, July 16.—A potition signed by nearly one hundred English and Bermuda athletes has been received by the Century Road Club of America, asking that the athletic events to be held in conjunction with the organization's annual athletes' voyage and outing to Bermuda, July 31 to Aug. 1, inclusive, be opened to all Bermuda cyclists and athletes, and it has been decided to open the events to all amateurs. The swimming, running and bicycle races and the baseball game, therefore, will be an international duel for the honors between British and American athletes, and the interest therein will be much keener.

PITCHERS' EFFECTIVENESS

Railroaders Win From Red Birds by Score Three to Two—Stein Timely With the Willow—Men Seldom on Bases.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Rocky Mount, N. C., July 15.—It was a day of pitchers' effectiveness while the crew took advantage of easy opportunity given to score and won today's game three to two. With one exception every Railroader was given life on a base scored. Stein again as yesterday started the run getting with a drive out of the park for a home run. Both teams fielded well and men were seldom on corners. Every man that reached third scored.

YALE COACHES.

Some of the Alumni Dissatisfied at Record of Crews.

New York, July 16.—Some Yale alumni have expressed dissatisfaction at the way Yale crews have trailed behind Harvard in recent regattas on the Thames. They have suggested that a new coach was needed by the Blue and a rumor was once circulated that James E. Rice, of Columbia, or Robert Courtney, of Cornell, would be called to take charge at Gales Ferry in the future.

However, the general run of Yale graduates do not find fault with their coach, nor do they lament the loss of a race as much as the fact that recent Yale crews have collapsed at the finish and shown lack of condition.

As for changing their coach, most Yale men believe that John Kennedy has not lost the reputation which he justly won as a builder of finished crews. His supporters argue that the Yale coach is all right, but that the Gales Ferry system is entirely wrong.

Harvard crews go to Red Top and train. They see no friends, they pay no social calls on cottage verandas. They eat four meals a day and row steadily. The atmosphere at Gales Ferry is that of a Summer resort rather than a training camp, and there is no physician in charge, as there is at Red Top. Customs have grown up at the Yale quarters which permit the crew men almost unlimited lattitude and a Yale rowing coach is not vested with the autocratic authority which Courtney enjoys at Cornell.

When Yale oarsmen are not on the water they are permitted to go to visit and stroll with the sisters and sweethearts through the cottage colony. They are dressed in their neatest and relax their efforts to condition themselves.

At Red Top the Harvard men pitch quoits for amusement and wear no more clothes than are required to avoid a disorderly conduct charge. When the day of the regatta comes several Yale oarsmen collapse at the finish line and the Harvard oarsmen appear to be in perfect condition.

There seems little reason for the report that John Kennedy will not coach at Yale again. Even if Yale would like to have the wizard of the Hudson at the head of the Blue rowing system, Courtney's contract with Cornell will not expire for several seasons, and Courtney likes his place. He is a Cornell institution.

TILLMAN BACK IN HARNESS.

Attends Meeting of the Board of Trustees of Clemson College.

Columbia, S. C., July 15.—Perhaps many people haven't noticed the fact, but Senator Tillman is back in harness. He attended the meeting of the Clemson board of trustees and while the reports did not say that he took an especially active part, he "was there."

As is well known to many of the senior Senator's friends, he takes a great interest in Clemson College, and he was very much worried last year about the presidency matter. Now that things are running all right, it is supposed the Senator's mind is at rest in regard to the college.

Senator Tillman has been invited to go down to Sullivan's Island and spend some time there for a little salt air recreation.

TWO DEAD IN RUNAWAY.

Aged Durham Couple's Horse Bolted in Storm, With Fatal Result.

Durham, N. C., July 14.—Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Sherman, an aged couple residing here, were killed last night in a runaway near Oxford.

They had driven from Durham to Oxford, about 40 miles, and were returning when they were overtaken by a storm. Their horses became frightened and the runaway and fatal accident occurred.

Baptist Missionary Jumped From Derrick at Bristol, Tenn.

Bristol, Tenn., July 15.—The Rev. Joseph Leonard, a missionary Baptist 60 years old, attempted suicide at his home at Wolfrun, Va., nine miles from Bristol by jumping 72 feet from the top of an oil derrick at 6 o'clock this evening. Both legs were broken and his injuries are probably fatal. He climbed the derrick in the presence of his wife and children, who pleaded for him to abandon his purpose. His mind is said to have become suddenly unbalanced.

WHITEVILLE VS. BOARDMAN.

Rain Broke Up Game in Third Inning —The Score.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Whiteville, N. C., July 17.—Whiteville and Boardman crossed bats here yesterday, but rain broke the game up in the third inning. The game promised to be very exciting and would no doubt have been very close, though neither team had scored. Whiteville had men on first and second in all the innings and had secured two hits off Perritt, the Boardman slab artist, while Boardman had only one man on first, the result of a base on balls. Sensational fielding by White on short and Lewis in center, of the big league variety, robbed Boardman of two nice hits in the first and second innings. Tucker, T. S., and Lumsden, were the battery for Whiteville and Perritt and Foxworth for Boardman.

WOLGAST AND MORAN

Twenty Round Bout For 'Frisco The Last of August.

San Francisco, July 15.—Promoter James Coffroth has arranged plans for staging in San Francisco the last of August a twenty-round boxing contest between Champion Ad Wolgast and Owen Moran. Coffroth has the promise of the managers of both men but the date is uncertain because Manager Jones is not certain when Wolgast's arm will be strong enough. Coffroth says he has assurances that the fight game will be resumed in San Francisco just as it was before the recent spasm of anti-pugilism broke out. Coffroth also is considering pulling off some fights in Reno, where hotel and restaurant keepers, gamblers and merchants are eager to welcome another fight crowd.

Gand, Belgium, July 15.—Daniel Kinet, the Bilgian aeronaut who fell when the rudder of his aeroplane broke last Sunday, died today from his injuries. Kinet held the world's record for an aeroplane flight with a passenger. May 15th he remained in the air with a companion for two hours and 51 minutes.

Governor's Mother Slightly Better—Fish Commission—Condition of Crops—Lightning Strikes Purnell Monument.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., July 15.—A letter received at the mansion this morning from Governor Kitchin was to the effect that his mother is slightly better but still very ill and not out of danger. He was summoned to her bed-side at Scotland Neck Tuesday and has been there ever since.

The legislative fish commission appointed by the last general assembly to investigate the condition of the North Carolina fisheries and report to the next session with a bill that will conserve the best interests of the industry all along the Carolina coast, spent the day in session here going over the reports of investigations thus far made by the members with a view to perfecting the report to be presented later to the Governor and through him to the Legislature. The members of the commission are Speaker of the House, A. W. Graham, Granville; Representatives R. A. Doughton, of Alleghany, and J. H. Currie, Cumberland, and Senators J. A. Barringer, of Guilford and E. L. Travis, of Halifax. Senator Travis has been unable to cooperate with the commission on account of his terrible wound inflicted by Powell at Scotland Neck at the same time that Powell shot Chief of Police Dunn and Representative Paul Kitchin. Messrs. Graham, Currie and Doughton, of the Commission, spent several weeks on the coast looking into the fisheries conditions, having with them Dr. Joseph Hyde Pratt, State geologist, Dr. Moore, of the United States Fisheries Bureau, and Everard Baker, the latter as secretary. They have also given hearings to fishermen and fish dealers so as to get a view of the situation from all sides. The commission was appointed because legislators from the eastern fisheries counties have been unable to agree on legislation, precipitating the most strenuous contests both before committees and on the floors of both Houses when fish bills were under consideration.

An amendment to the charter of the Dover Lumber Co., increases the capital $30,000. J. W. Stewart is president. The company's principal office is in Newbern.

The most remarkable freak of the fierce electric and rain storm that passed over this section Wednesday is reported from Oakwood cemetery, this city, where the handsome monument at the head of the grave of the late Judge Thomas R. Purnell, of the Eastern District, United States court, was literally ruined by a bolt of lightning. A smaller stone at the head of the grave of his deceased son was also knocked down, but not broken.

The semi-annual session of the North Carolina Geological Board and Economic Survey was held in the executive office of the Governor today, the general work in the promotion of road building, drainage and forest conservation, to which the board is giving special attention, coming in for special consideration with reports of gratifying progress submitted by Dr. Pratt, State geologist. The board comprises Frank Hewitt, Asheville; R. D. Caldwell, Lumberton; Hugh MacRae, Wilmington, and C. S. Vann, Edenton.

Anxious friends here regret to learn that there seems to be no improvement in the condition of State Senator E. L. Travis, who was so terribly wounded in the mouth by the man Powell, who at the same time shot Representative Paul Kitchin and Chief of Police Dunn. Senator Travis spent a long while in a Richmond hospital under special treatment and went to his Halifax home three weeks ago. While there are good chances for his ultimate recovery, his friends are very anxious about him. Powell is serving 20 years in the penitentiary for the killing of Dunn, having submitted to the charge of manslaughter in the midst of his trial for his life when his defense was insanity.

Reports received in the State Department of Agriculture as to the condition of the cotton crop throughout the State indicate that with fairly favorable seasons for the remainder of the Summer and a late Fall something like an average crop can be realized. The plants are now something like two weeks late, but are exhibiting a capacity for rapid development under favorable weather conditions. The wheat crop just harvested is represented to be exceptionally good in all the wheat growing sections. Corn seems to be rather backward, especially in the matter of the filling out of the ears. It is feared that the yield of corn will be considerably below what was expected for a while earlier in the season.

THIRD DISTRICT "RADS."

Congressional Convention Called to Meet at Goldsboro August 11th.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Goldsboro, N. C., July 15.—This afternoon the Republican Executive Committee of the Third Congressional District, with all counties represented except Sampson, were in session in this city, Mr. Robert Hancock, of Newbern, presiding, and Capt. E. A. Simkins, this city, secretary. The committee called the convention to meet in this city August 11th, the day following the meeting of the Republican State convention when a candidate for Congress will be nominated.

TOWN CREEK RAILROAD.

Large Force of Hands at Work on W. B. & S.

(Southport News.)

As was stated last week, a large force of hands are at work on the railroad to Bolivia. President Whitehead, of the W. B. & Southern, was here this week and stated that they had the largest pay roll that the company has ever had.

Messrs. Cox and Mercer, of Bolivia, have the contract for an unlimited number of cross-ties to be delivered as speedily as possible. Other contractors are at work getting ties for the road.

This is the same interest, practically, as the Town Creek Railroad & Lumber Company. The road is completed from Navassa to and across Town Creek, where an expensive trestle has been completed.

It is announced that the route of the proposed Inland Waterway has been determined, and that it enters the Cape Fear above Southport about ten miles and passes up the Elizabeth river just below Southport and thence on down the coast a few miles inland, crossing the Lockwoods Folly and Shallotte on the Waccamaw. This is highly pleasing to Southport, no doubt, and it is hoped that the enterprise will be completed as projected. Wilmington desired the entrance to the Cape Fear above that city. This was found impracticable. It was even urged to go through and tap Lake Waccamaw from the Cape Fear, and thence to the Waccamaw. This was found impracticable. The Southport way is found to be most desirable, in fact the only practical way, when the outlay is considered. Southport will labor more earnestly in the future for this great enterprise, and with the harbor of refuge in view, she has a great opportunity. This is the expedient, the logical harbor on the coast for the Harbor of Refuge.—Southport News.

WANT TAFT AT HEAD.

Movement to Celebrate Anniversary of English Speaking People.

Beverly, Mass., July 15.—President Taft was invited today to head, as honorary president of a movement to appropriately celebrate in 1914 the one hundredth anniversary of peace among English speaking people. A committee of New York men representing the National committee having the project in hand called at the Taft cottage late this afternoon. The President asked that the invitation be put in writing and said that he then would give a definite answer. It is understood that the President looks with decided favor upon the proposed celebration, and whether he accepts the honorary presidency or not, he will do all he can to help the movement. The plan of the celebration includes the erection of a suitable memorial at Nicaragua, in which Canada and Great Britain would be invited to join. It is the hope of the committee to make the celebration world-wide and in order to secure a result which would confer distinction on America and emphasize the desire of this country for peace with all nations, it is felt that the movement should have the President of the United States identified with it.

Vice President Sherman will be asked to serve as honorary vice president.

THE RURAL LIFE CONFERENCE.

Mann Predicts Virginia Corn Crop Will Increase 50,000,000 Bushels.

Charlottesville, Va., July 15.—Governor Mann, of Virginia, speaking today before the third annual Rural Life Conference, held here in connection with the University of Virginia Summer school, predicted that during the next four years the Virginia corn crop would be increased from fifty to one hundred millions of bushels and that the revenue from agriculture would be increased from $182,000,000 to nearly $400,000,000. The conference was closed tonight with an address by Prof. D. J. Crosby, of the United States Department of Agriculture, who spoke on "Connecting Public School Agriculture With the Business of Farming."

Other speakers were E. C. Bishop, Nebraska State Superintendent of Schools; Dr. Robert Frazer, of Warrenton, Va., and Mrs. Kate Pleasants Minor, of the Virginia State Library.

FLORIDA FRUIT CROP.

In Poorer Condition Than at Same Time Last Year.

Washington, July 15.—The pine apple, limes and grape fruit crop in Florida on July 1st were in poorer condition than at that time a year ago. The Department of Agriculture's figures of the condition of pine apples indicate the crop at 71 per cent., of a normal at that time, against 94 last year; of limes, 75 per cent., against 94 in 1909, and of grape fruit, 74 per cent., against 88 a year ago.

TRIED TO DEPOSIT CHECKS.

To Amount of $40,000 on Spartanburg Bank—Swan is Arrested.

Chicago, July 15.—A man giving the name of A. R. Swan was arrested in the Great Northern Hotel this afternoon following an attempt by him to deposit checks amounting to $40,000 issued by the Spartanburg, (S. C.) National Bank. It is suspected the prisoner's real name is William S. Clark and that he was impersonating Swan.

FIFTY-THREE KILLED.

Tribesmen Attacked French Column—Result of the Battle.

Oujda, Morocco, July 15.—A band of tribesmen today attacked a French column which was reconnoitering in the Mouloya region near the Algerian frontier, but was beaten off after a fierce battle, leaving 53 of their dead on the field.

In the engagement the French forces lost eleven men killed and 45 wounded.

CENTRAL AMERICA REVOLUTION.

Imminent at Present With Honduras as the Battleground.

Mobile, Ala., July 15.—Another Central American revolution is imminent. This time Honduras is to be the battle-ground and President Davila is to meet in combat his old opponent and former president of the Republic, Manuel Bonilla. This is the firm belief of the Central American colony in Mobile, members of which were stirred today to the sailing from Mobile of the Norwegian steamer Utstein with 113 cases of ammunition and other war material.

RICHMOND POWER CO.

Half Million Dollar Corporation Organized in Virginia.

Richmond, Va., July 15.—A $500,000 charter was today granted by the State Corporation Commission to the Richmond Power Corporation, a company organized for the purpose of generating electricity from the coal mines of Midlothian, near Richmond, for transmission and entering into competition with the power plants already existing at Richmond, Petersburg, Norfolk and other points. The officers and incorporators of the company are S. Dabney Crenshaw and Levin Joynes, of Richmond, and F. W. Mehlen, St. John Clarke and Henry B. Trombley, of New York.

Cool Kitchen—Perfect Cooking

The housewife with years of experience—the woman who knows how to cook—finds, after practical tests and hard trials, the New Perfection Oil Cook-Stove is her idea of what a good cook-stove really ought to be.

She finds it requires less attention, costs less to operate, and cooks all food better than any other stove she has ever tried.

She finds the New Perfection oven bakes and roasts perfectly. The

FRONTING THE ENEMY.

The Democratic party in North Carolina now has its front to the enemy. The State convention held in Charlotte on Thursday made a choice of the leaders and threw down the gauge of battle in a platform that will blister the feet of the opposition if it attempts to walk over it.

The nominations made by the convention were about as expected. For instance, there was the re-nomination of Chief Justice Walter Clark, the re-nomination of Associate Justice Platt D. Walker, and the new nomination of Judge W. R. Allen, of Goldsboro, as Associate Justice to succeed Associate Justice Manning. The other nominations were Henry Clay Brown and W. T. Lee for members of the Corporation Commission.

With such men as these as the offerings of the North Carolina Democracy, there will be few disappointments and no deep regrets to be harbored, for it is a strong ticket and cannot by any possible means be matched by the opposition. The Democratic nominees are among the State's most able men, all honored for their lofty character and unsullied reputations. They are so well known that it is needless to individualize, but it can be said that were the Democracy opposed by a party worthy of its steel, the ticket would be a formidable offering for opposition. The records and the characters of the nominees, the progress, the propriety and the happiness of the people of North Carolina under Democratic administrations, and the safety of the State having its assurance only in a continuance of the Democratic party in power in the Good Old North State, is all that need be presented to a loyal son of the State to win his support.

Aside from the nominations and the incidents of the convention, it was an interesting and important occasion. The mid-night assault of Senator Lee S. Overman on the Republican party was a powerful arraignment of the flagrantly vulnerable record of the Washington administration and its party, and fair-minded men who consider his bold statements substantiated by the plain facts and open records must be convinced that the safety of this Republic and this State lies in the hands of the Democratic party. The Senator's speech was indeed a "clarion call" to patriotic and conscientious North Carolinians.

Then there was the vigorous and reassuring speech of Chairman A. H. Eller, whose words rung like flashing steel and had an effect like a buzz saw running to do business. All together, convention day in Charlotte was a good day for the North Carolina Democracy, and there is every reason to believe that the State will be saved again by the sons ever proud of her past, jealous of her honor, and anxious for her future.

The Greensboro Record says "women in England do not marry until they are about 25 or 30 years of age." Guess they marry then because they are old enough to see their mistake.

It is mighty hard for a man to get beaten for office and then to join in and "make it unanimous" for the other fellow. As an Englishman would say, it looks like one kicking oneself when one is down.

An old timey law in Iceland provided banishment for a man who kissed a girl without her will, but if it could be proved that she had consented to be kissed the fellow was still liable to a fine consisting of a great many yards of cloth. It is impossible to restrain the reflection that the man who owned a cloth factory had a greater monopoly than the ice cream trust.

JOINT CONTROL OF TRAFFIC.

The matter of transportation is one of the biggest problems that confronts the whole world today. It has ceased to be a local, State or National problem but is one of the world problems. Transportation for travel at home and abroad and transportation for exchange of the products of one country with that of another is making the matter of transportation an international problem.

We are writing now from the assumption that Government regulation of transportation and traffic has not only come to stay but the bounds of it are widening all the time. Whatever we may think of the wisdom of arbitrary regulation one way or another, the fact is that the power for regulating traffic and transportation is growing stronger and broader all the time. There is no restriction to it. The coils are tightening all the time. For instance, we call to witness the greatly enlarged powers of the Inter-State Commerce Commission and the establishment of the Court of Commerce as a further step towards corporate control and the regulation of transportation. The legal and constitutional questions are not taken into consideration here, for the composite truth is that "regulation" is established and recognized, and it is a progressive principle that is going on up to the limit—a government regulation that practically will mean government ownership or some thing equally as bad.

The drift hereof will be better understood if you read the Washington dispatch in yesterday's Star. The purport of that dispatch is that we are to have regulation not only as a Nation but we are to have international regulation. For instance, the powers at Washington and the powers at Ottawa are contemplating "joint regulation." The dispatch says it is proposed to have an "International Railway Commission with supervisory authority over the railroads of the United States and Canada." The proposition has taken such shape that the Washington Government actually appointed Chairman Knapp, of the Inter-State Commerce Commission, as the representative of the United States, to confer with the Hon. J. P. Mabee, chief of the Railroad Commission of Canada, who has been designated by the latter country as its representative.

Our first thought in this connection was whether Congress has outhorized this step, but upon second thought it occurred to us that the Washington Government would not take into consideration such an insignificant thing as Congress. However, unless the conferences between the railroad regulators are not to cost anything but are just simply to talk over the matter and lay out an international regulation policy, it would be none of the business of Congress. If, however, it is to cost money and no appropriation is made for it, this Government is presuming that Congress will agree later to foot the bill. Then again, there may be some loose money that can be used in spite of what Congress appropriated it for.

It might appear that we are trying to throw cold water on this "International Railway Commission with supervisory authoritiy over the railroads of the United States and Canada," but the proposition interests us. We don't like to be captious but hadn't they better substitute "advisory" for that word "supervisory," for how could even Congress authorize a foreign commission to regulate railroads in this country, or what power has Congress to regulate Canadian railroads—"jointly"? The two commissions certainly could get together on certain questions, but they certainly could not take joint action. They could take separate action of an identical nature, but we do not see how any power in the United States and Canada could establish a joint commission with "supervisory power."

Nevertheless, the transportation problem is here, looming bigger and bigger all the time. Commissions and laws are to say how much railroads and water craft shall charge for passengers and freight—in fact, to determine how much or how little shall be earned to pay expenses, pay off the interest and principal of bonds, pay stockholders dividends on their investments, and what shall be set aside for betterments, extensions, etc.

Verily, the commissions to do all that would have to be composed of railroad experts, who would have to know all the details of the management and operation of every railroad in the country, so the commission could know how to let the railroads earn enough money to keep from going into bankruptcy. It is quite evident that no such thing as uniform rates can be established, for what would make one road rich would bankrupt another. However, it strikes us that what the people most need is not so much the establishment of rates as a correction of unjust and discriminatory rates. If rates were reasonable and there were no outrageous discrimination, the interminable conflict between the public and the carriers would be robbed of the serious aspect that is engendering bitterness and provoking a dangerous antagonism that sooner or later will vindicate William Jennings Bryan as a prophet and relieve him of the odium of defeat for the Presidency because he was bold enough to declare what he foresaw and the steady trend of which is in the direction of what he predicted with an "if."

After all this crusade against flies, if anybody in Wilmington has any "flies on him" it is his own fault.

The "jokers" which are slipped into the acts of Congress indicate that some other interests besides those of The People are represented in Congress.

Col. Roosevelt imagines he is a trust buster. The fact is, trust busting is in its infancy and the Colonel only held the bottle to it for it awhile. The "youngun" which he somewhat nourished is not of sufficient robustness as yet to cope with the trusts.

In spite of State and National defeats, lo, these many hoary years, the Democrats of Vermont held their State convention on Thursday and nominated "a full State ticket." If these martyrs to a Noble Cause happen to get elected it will be sufficient cause for the whole ticket to get full again.

Postmaster Reynolds, of Winston-Salem, expects at least 100 postmasters to attend the annual meeting of the Postmasters' Association in his city, September 23-24. This convention will be a matter concerning the males—as the females are not counted when it comes to a mere matter of handling mails.

President Taft went into commission pledging himself to carry out "My Policies". The blind but brilliant statesman, Senator Gore, of Oklahoma, declares that "President Taft has made good by carrying out the Roosevelt policies—on a stretcher." Wonder if Col. Roosevelt can appreciate a blind man's joke.

Durham county Republicans are boasting that they "will beat Gen. Julian S. Carr," the Democratic nomnee for the Legislature. Instead of flippant talk like that, the Durham Republicans could boast of some respectability if they were to join the Democrats in sending Gen. Carr to the General Assembly as a matter of county pride.

The Governor of South Carolina never comes to see the Governor of North Carolina. Amenities are not what they used to be when the Governor of North Carolina once made to the Governor of South Carolina a remark that became famous as a gentle reminder. Now there is "nothing doing," so the Governor of South Carolina cannot be coaxed away from Columbia.

CURRENT COMMENT.

We congratulate the Democrats of the Third Congressional District in selecting Dr. John M. Faison as their standard bearer for the coming election. Dr. Faison is one of the finest campaigners in the State and we have no fears for the Democracy of the district.—Bladen Journal.

Captain Sam T. Ashe is doing the editorial work on The Charlotte News during the absence of Editor J. C. Patton, who marries today. Mr. Ashe was formerly editor of the Wilmington Messenger, Wilmington Star and was an editorial writer on the Charlotte Observer at one time. He is a fluent writer and a treat is in store for the readers of The News.—Greenville (S. C.) Piedmont.

Cheating never thrives, or words to this effect, not that there was downright cheating in this instance, but it was next to it—the proceedings in that judicial convention at Winston the other day. They are telling all kinds of stories about it—the delegates are who where there. And what they say is real warm on the surface and probably on the inside. That Forsyth should have buncoed one of its honored citizens is quite bad enough; that two of them should have got it in the neck is still worse. Of course the information on which this is based comes from those who were at the game. In short, it is that delegates from certain counties were anxious to vote for Judge Pell, but he held them off because of Mr. Buxton, the promise being that should he get out, Forsyth would of course vote for Pell. This time arrived, so say the delegates, and they thought something would be doing for Pell, but it wasn't; instead, Forsyth cast her solid vote for Lane and he was nominated. And right here is where these delegates are saying the game was played to the limit—where the trade was made in the hope that Jones would profit in the Congressional fight. That is to say, Forsyth cast her vote for Lane with the understanding that in return Rockingham was to cast her vote for Jones when the Congressional battle is renewed. This, we repeat, is what these delegates say and they say it boldly. Since the convention first met the object was to combine against Major Stedman and the thing was worked to the limit, yet they could not beat him; the best they could do was to create a deadlock with a view of beating him at the next sitting. Will it work? We shall see.—Greensboro Record.

In a recent address before the Indiana Bar Association, Mr. Frederick J. Stimson showed that the English, six of seven hundred years ago, found an effective way to deal with the trusts and combinations of their time. The same questions, he said, came up in England in the thirteenth, fourteenth and fifteenth centuries precisely that we are having today in this country, but the British did not rely on a special statute to cure the evil. They applied the common law of England, under which a combination to injure another or the general public was forbidden, whether its motive was criminal or not, but a combination which was devoid of this purpose or effect was permitted. "This old law of conspiracy," says Mr. Stimson, "resognized that not only was combined action or possession for a criminal purpose unlawful, but it was equally unlawful when it had a purpose merely immoral, such as the injury of a third party or of the people in general, as in the case of our trusts and combines in restraint of trade. That law was established in its perfection five hundred years ago in England, and all our anti-trust acts have added nothing to it." Therefore seeing how important the common law is in dealing with the evils and abuses in this country today, Mr. Stimson urges that it "be studied, not forgotten, not repealed, but rather strengthened." He tells the country that it is the duty of the bench and bar to inform themselves on this important matter, and not to think that the trust evil is a hopeless evil, but to realize that it is one which has been met and surmounted in the past history of English civilization. In this country the respect for law is not so great and its enforcement not so perfect as in Great Britain, but nevertheless, there is much for us to learn from the experience of our British ancestors who never submitted to industrial or political tyranny. We can profit greatly by recognizing the fact that injurious trusts are illegal under the common law, and that we may get rid of them by applying that law to them.—New Orleans States.

CHESNUT STREET.

(Communicated.)

Is the temporary injunction on Chesnut street against public locomotion, to be made permanent? "The Club" or the city, or somebody ought to do something. The public, I'm sure, as well as myself, is tired of whetting out their shoes on rough-edged Belgian blocks. However, you may recollect what Wm. H. Vanderbilt said about the public. EUROPEAN CRUISE PLANNED.

Atlantic Fleet Leaves on Long Voyage Next October.

Washington, July 15.—The detailed itinerary of the European cruise of the Atlantic fleet, comprising 16 battleships, the auxiliary cruiser Dixie and torpedo boat destroyers, the converted yacht Yankton, the hospital ship Solace and the supply ship Culgoa was announced by the Navy Department today.

The vessels of the fleet will leave their various home yards and rendezvous at a convenient point in the Atlantic ocean, thence proceeding by divisions until it becomes necessary to separate in accordance with the itinerary. The first date in the programme is October 26th, when the Yankton will leave New York, and the last date is January 16th, when the battleships will arrive at Guantanamo for the usual maneuvres including target practice.

The ports included in the itinerary are Villefranche, Naples, Gibraltar, Toulon, Genoa, Phalerum Bay, Alexandria, Barcelona, Lisbon, Marseilles, Ponta Delgada, Leghorn, Algiers and Madeira.

All of the fleet except the third division, the destroyers, the Dixie, the Yankton and the Solace will spend Christmas at Gibraltar and even the Solace will arrive there during the holidays.

The first division will leave New York November 1st. The Connecticut and Michigan will be at Villefranche November 18th-December 2nd, and Naples December 3rd-19th and the Delaware and North Dakota at Toulon November 18th-December 2nd and Genoa December 3rd-19th, all four battleships of this division remaining at Gibraltar December 23rd-31st.

The second division will leave Fortress Monroe, Va., October 31st. The Louisiana and South Carolina will visit Phalerum Bay November 21st-December 3rd, Alexandria December 5th-17th and the Kansas and New Hampshire will visit Alexandria November 22nd-December 3rd and Phalerum Bay December 5th-18th, all four at Gibraltar December 24th-31st.

Constituting the third division, which will leave Boston November 1st, the battleships Georgia and Nebraska will visit Barcelona November 16th-December 8th and the Rhode Island and Virginia will be at Marseilles November 17th-December 7th, the entire division to be at Lisbon December 11th-January 1st.

Of the fourth division which will leave Philadelphia October 31st the battleships Minnesota and Vermont will be at Naples November 17th-December 2nd and Villefranche December 3rd-21st; the battleship Mississippi and Idaho will visit Genoa November 18th-December 2nd and Toulon December 3rd-21st, the whole division remaining at Gibraltar December 24th-31st.

All the other crafts are grouped in what is termed the seventh torpedo division. The destroyers and the auxiliary cruiser Dixie and the hospital ship Solace will leave New York November 1st. The destroyers and the Dixie will be at Ponta Delgada November 9th-14th, Leghorn November 20th-December 8th; Algiers, December 10th-26th; Madeira, December 30th-January 3rd and San Juan January 12th, being joined at San Juan three days later by the Yankton. The Yankton will leave New York October 26th, putting in at Ponta Delgada November 5th-10th, Villefranche, November 18th-December 2nd; Naples December 3rd-18th and Madeira December 25th-January 3rd.

The hospital ship solace will visit Algiers, November 17th-December 10th; Lisbon, December 13th-26th; Gibraltar, December 27th-31st, returning to Norfolk on January 14th. The supply ship Culgoa will leave New York December 1st and visit Lisbon December 14th-23rd, Gibraltar December 14th-31st, returning to New York January 14th.

SAYS INDICTMENT IS LEGAL.

Disproved Reports Concerning Action Against Cotton Pool Men.

New oYrk, July 15.—Reports that the government had found defects in the indictment against James A. Patten and others in connection with the alleged cotton pool and that it had decided to submit the cases to another grand jury were disproved today through proceedings in the United States Circuit Court.

Before Judge Hand in that court, argument was had on the pleas in abatement and the demurrer that had been interposed in behalf of the defendants.

Adrian H. Larkin, counsel for the defendants, asked that the matter be allowed to go over, but on the opposition of Assistant District Attorney Frankfurter, Judge Hand announced that he would hear argument. The pleas of abatement alleged that the special Federal grand jury which found the indictments against Patten and the others was not legally drawn and that therefore the bill was not a legal one.

In opposition to the pleas United States District Attorney Wise put in a demurrer in which he asserts that the special grand jury was properly drawn and organized and that the indictment is legal.

HENRY JEROME STOCKARD, A. M., Pres., Raleigh, N. C.

FOR WILMINGTON DISTRICT

Extract From River and Harbor Act of June 25th, Showing Amounts Appropriated for Waterways Projects.

Readers of The Star will be interested in the following extract from the River and Harbor Act of June 25th, showing the appropriations made for a continuance of the improvements of the waterways in the Wilmington district:

Improving harbor at Beaufort, N. C., for maintenance, $5,000.

Improving Beaufort Inlet, N. C., for maintenance, $7,500.

Improving Shallowbag Bay, N. C., completing improvement in accordance with the report submitted in House document numbered 906, 60th Congress, 1st session, $13,750.

Improving Bay River, N. C., completing improvement in accordance with the report submitted in House document No. 583, 61st Congress, 2nd session, $21,000.

Improving Cape Fear river above Wilmington, N. C., continuing improvement, with a view to securing a navigable depth of eight feet up to Fayetteville, including surveys and acquisition of land for sites for locks and dams, and completion of plans for the same, in accordance with the report submitted in House document No. 890, 60th Congress, 1st session, $100,000.

Provided, that the Secretary of War may enter into a contract or contracts for such materials and work as may be necessary to complete the said project, to be paid for as appropriations may from time to time be made by law, not to exceed in the aggregate five hundred and fifteen thousand dollars, exclusive of the amounts herein and heretofore appropriated.

Improving Cape Fear river at and below Wilmington, N. C.; continuing improvement to such depth in excess of 20 feet as the appropriations for the work may permit, due regard being given to the difference in tidal oscillation at the upper and lower portion of the improvement, $400,000.

Provided, that if in the judgment of the Secretary of War the prices received in response to advertisement for bids for dredging are not reasonable and less than those at which the government can perform the same work, so much of the amount herein appropriated as shall be necessary may be expended for the purchase or construction of a suitable hydraulic dredging plant for use on the Cape Fear river.

Improving Contentnia creek, N. C., for maintenance, $2,000.

Improving Fishing creek, N. C., for maintenance, $1,500.

Improving Neuse and Trent rivers, N. C., continuing improvement and for maintenance, including work in accordance with plan for securing a depth of four feet in Trent river, from Newbern to Trenton, submitted in House document No. 1471, 60th Congress, 2nd session, $36,000.

Improving New river and waterway to Beaufort, N. C., continuing improvement and for maintenance of New river, N. C., including inland waterways between Beaufort harbor and New river and between New river and Swansboro, $23,700, of which sum $6,700 may be expended upon New river in accordance with the report submitted in House document No. 1085, 60th Congress, 2nd session.

Improving Northeast, Black and Cape Fear rivers, N. C., for maintenance of improvement of Northeast and Black rivers and Cape Fear river above Wilmington, $7,000.

Improving Pamlico and Tar rivers, N. C., for maintenance, $5,000.

Improving Scuppernong river, N. C., for maintenance, $2,500.

Improving Smith's creek, N. C., completing improvement in accordance with the report submitted in House document No. 774, 61st Congress, 2nd session, $16,250.

Provided that local interests shall construct the bulkhead recommended in said report, and convey to the United States the right to deposit the excavated material behind the said bulkhead; Provided further, that said local interests shall provide at least one public wharf of adequate facilities, the use of which shall be open to all on equal terms.

Improving Swift creek, N. C., completing improvement in accordance with report submitted in House document No. 360, 61st Congress, 2nd session, $1,600.

Waterway from Pamlico sound to Beaufort Inlet, N. C., for maintenance, $10,000.

Improving harbor at Morehead City, N. C., completing improvement in accordance with the report submitted in House document No. 649, 61st Congress, 2nd session, $19,000.

Provided, that local interests shall construct a bulkhead 500 feet in length in front of Morehead City and shall cause to be conveyed to the United States the right to deposit between said bulkhead and the shore the material exeavated from the channel; Provided further, that said local interests, or the town of Morehead City, shall provide at least one wharf of adequate facilities, the use of which shall be open to all on equal terms.

Improving harbor at Beaufort, N. C., completing improvement by the construction of a channel from the inland waterway between Norfolk and Beaufort Inlet to the town of Beaufort, by way of Gallants Channel, in accordance with the report submitted in House document No. 511, 61st Congress, 2nd session, $27,676.

Provided, that any unexpended balance may be used for constructing a turning basin in front of the town of Beaufort.

Improving waterway connecting Swan Quarter Bay with Deep Bay, N. C., completing improvement in accordance with the report submitted in House document No. 445, 60th Congress, 1st session, $14,575.

The total amount is $730,051.

Examination and Surveys directed by this act to be made in Wilmington district: Cape Lookout harbor, with a view to determining its availability and adaptability as a commercial harbor; Core Creek, with a view to the improvement of navigation up to Core Creek landing; Scuppernong river to the town of Cherry; harbor of Belhaven, and entrance thereto; Slades creek; channel from Core Sound to Newport river, by way of Taylor's creek or Carrot Island slough; Elizabeth river; Fishing creek; French Broad river; Shallotte river.

FROM ELIZABETHTOWN.

Often a community sympathizes in some special time of distress, but hardly before in the annals of the Cape Fear section, has a people so genuinely sorrowed as in the passing away of LeRoy King Smith, son of Mrs. Rose Barry Smith and the late Capt. H. H. Smith.

The 11th of April, 1881 began the young life, and Sunday, the 26th of June, 1910, the brave, splendid manhood was closed to this world.

Truth, honor, generosity were his heritage, and spotless did he keep his inheritance. Of too broad a nature to imitate even the virtues of another, he was original, following his own code, in his own manner. No thought of personal danger entered his make-up. A few weeks since, he plunged into the waves to save a negro from downing, giving no after-thought to the bravery of that act. His passengers felt perfect reliance in his control of the boat, they were "safe", with him. Each one knew in case of accident, they would be served, so long as a pulse beat in the alert, capable officer.

The youngest captain ever licensed on the river, he elevated the service, carrying into it polish of manner, with perfect discharge of duty. To the letter his crew obeyed—seemingly through love, for his voice was never raised in giving commands, and no sincerer tears have fallen than from his men—no floral offering more touching than theirs to "Our Captain."

He was a Pythian, their "best beloved and most popular knight," his lodge at Elizabeth wrote. He was a charter member of Cape Fear Harbor, No. 81.

Conspicuous was the trait that gave the poorest equal claims with the richest, to his aid and protection.

In a fatal moment he gave his promise to carry around to Wrightsville Beach a naptha launch, which gave his young life for naught, as man sees it. The waters that he loved yielded their treasure to waiting outstretched hands. A tribute of the wharf, never paid before, a chrismal service, came with a flood of tears from every onlooker as the body, so lately perfect in physique, replete with athletic grace, was handed those who loved him and had served with him in all his business life. Irrespective of creed, Wilmington offered the snowy haired mother, the heart broken brothers and sisters its sympathies. All along the river came people from miles inland, to learn of the awful tragedy, to express their love for the young man who had served them so faithfully. "Roy" was a household name—many will be the days before another comes to aid those needing a friend to fill the place of Captain Roy Smith.

In looking over his Bible, one is struck with the spirituality evinced in the marked passages, no one can doubt that in the Heavenly Mansions he is at home.

Very tender did the Father's words sound read by Dr. McClure in the last, sad service. With feeling only evoked when the deepest chords of life are struck, were the hymns sung by weeping pople.

Magnificent were the floral tributes. Love, tears, flowers, were his burial one might say. To the joy of his near and dear, he deserved all. "He kept the whiteness of his soul". "Full many a cycle will pass before death will level his dart at such another."

Only God can comfort the afflicted. Only He can show why such was permitted. Only He can say why the splendid young life could not reach the full stature of manhood here.

CURES PIMPLES EASY.

Simple Remedy That Clears Skin Quickly of All Eruptions.

For several weeks past J. Hicks Bunting Co. have done the biggest business it ever had in any one article in selling Hokara, the skin food that has won so many friends in Wilmington.

It has been found to be an absolute cure not only for all minor skin troubles, such as pimples, blackheads, herpes, ache, scaly scalp, complexion blemishes, itching feet, piles, etc., but for the worst sores, ulcers, or even chronic eczema and salt rheum. There has yet to be found any form of wound on disease affecting the skin or mucous membrane that Hokara does not heal, and its action is so instantaneous that those who try it are simply delighted with it right from the start.

In spite of its unusual curative powers, the price is trifling. To convince every one of its merits, they will sell a liberal-sized jar for 25 cents. And remember that if you do not think it does what it claims, you get your money back. You certainly can afford to try it on this plan.

If the skin trouble is caused by im pure blood or if the bowels are inactive, use Hokara Blood Tablets. They cool and cleanse the blood and regulate the bowels in a natural way.

SANITARY CONDITIONS BAD?

Aldermen, in Special Session, Appropriate $5,000 in Interest of Health of Community—Other Matters Considered.

The Board of Aldermen, in special session yesterday at noon, the meeting being called for the purpose of considering applications for restaurant licenses and for the transaction of any other business, received a communication from the City Board of Health relative to the unsanitary conditions of the city; appropriated $5,000 to be placed at the disposal of a special committee to remedy the conditions complained of; instructed the clerk to notify the Police and Fire Commission of charges Aldermen Fales had preferred against the police for failure to close up "unlicensed saloons;" turned down an application for near-beer license and considerad a number of matters bearing upon the sanitary conditions and general health of the community.

Mayor Walter G. MacRae presided with the following members of the board in attendance: Aldermen Bonitz, West, Ellis, Willard, Fales, Hinton and Rehder. While the call for the meeting stated that it was for the purpose of passing on applications for restaurant licenses and for any other business that might come before the body, no restaurant licenses were considered. D. L. T. Capps made application for license to do a near-beer business at 119 South Front street, the board taking unfavorable action.

The following communication from the City Board of Health was read:

"Health Department,

"Wilmington, N. C., July 14, 1910.

"At a meeting of the City Board of Health held July 14th, 1910, statistics were furnished by a physician of the city, which showed that in a list of nine cities, comprising Raleigh, N. C., Wilmington, N. C., Key West, Fla., New York, Louisville, Kentucky, and Chicago, Wilmington stands second in total death rate for all causes. The same is true of deaths from typhoid fever. In diarrhael diseases she stands third. These statistics are for whites only. We therefore wish to impress upon the Board of Aldermen and the Board of Audit and Finance the urgent necessity of the city of Wilmington acquiring its own sewerage system. Laying aside any question as to the adequacy of the present system it is impossible to force the owners of approximately four thousand surface closets now in existence to enter sewers not owned by the city.

JOSEPH AKERMAN,

"Supt. City Board of Health."

The reading of the communication provoked considerable discussion. Alderman Bonitz made one of his characteristically stirring speeches in which he called special attention to the manner in which the scavenger work is done. He was emphatic in his declaration that the city should do this work as a matter of protection to the people of the city. He thought that there should be a sufficient number of health inspectors and that premises should be cleaned as often as recommended by the inspectors, whether it be twice a week, once a week or once or twice a month. Contractors, he stated, took the work to make money out of it, when the city should take hold of it and do it for the protection of the people. Alderman Bonitz said that he had nothing personally against the contractors, his remarks, he said, being solely in the interest of the people of the community. He also emphasized the importance of pushing the sewerage work.

City Attorney McClammy stated, when asked for an opinion, that it was in the power of the Aldermen to take the bull by the horns, so to speak, and manage the affairs of the city when an employe or any commissioner is not doing his duty, or when the matter came within the police regulations. He read a lengthy opinion, holding that the Aldermen have a perfect right to fix the closing hours of near-beer saloons and to change same at any time they see fit, or of restaurants, the latter also coming within the police regulations. Mr. McClammy said that if the Aldermen deemed it necessary to appropriate money for the health of the city they could do so and compel the Board of Audit and Finance to concur through a mandamus, if in no other way.

Mayor MacRae said that the situation was serious and something should be done. He also stated that there is almost an epidemic of typhoid fever in the city. After further discussion, Alderman Willard moved that $5,000 be appropriated to remedy the unsanitary conditions, the money to be placed at the disposal of a committee of three to be named by the Mayor. The motion prevailed and Mayor MacRae named the following as the committee, it being understood that Chairman Ellis, of the Sanitary Committee, would give his co-operation: Aldermen Rehder, Bonitz and Willard.

Alderman Rehder stated that at a recent meeting the Aldermen extended the hog limits in the northern section and that although the Chief of Police had been notified of the extension of the limits the hogs within the district had not been moved. He also called attention to the damages from sewerage being dumped in the northeastern part of the city. Alderman Bonitz called attention to the fact that certain merchants on Market street, between Front and Third, have been throwing trash and garbage on the street instead of placing it in barrels or cans, and insisted that the police should take up the matter. In speaking again about the health situation, Alderman Williard said he thought horse stables should have screens and that cows should not be allowed to be kept in the city save within the hog limits. He made a motion that the hog district apply also to cows, but upon objection of Alderman Fales the matter went over until the next meeting.

Alderman West again moved that the hour for closing near-beer saloons be changed from 9 P. M. to 11 P. M. After some discussion the matter went over until a later meeting.

Alderman Fales reiterated the charges that he made at the last meeting of the board to the effect that places not holding near-beer licenses are selling intoxicants and staying open as late as midnight, while the man who has paid $300 for the privilege must close at 9 P. M. He thought the fault was with the chief of police. Policemen, he said, had told him that a number of such places were receiving intoxicants by the barrel, and that they had reported the matter to the chief, but no action had been taken. Upon motion of Alderman West, seconded by Alderman Willard, the clerk was directed to notify the Police and Fire Commission of the cahrges preferred by Alderman Fales, so that he may be summoned before that body and tell the names and testify to his charges.

The board adopted a resolution authorizing the sale of the remaining $100,000 worth of water and sewerage bonds, the money to be used in providing an improved sewerage system. A former resolution authorizing the sale of the bonds had a proviso that no part of the money be used for the purchase of any existing sewerage system. The resolution adopted yesterday is minus this proviso.

In speaking yesterday afternoon of the charges made by Alderman Fales, Chief of Police Williams said that he would not only welcome an investigation into the matter but earnestly desired it. He said that to him it did not appear that Alderman Fales was exactly consistent, as some weeks ago the Alderman referred to him (Chief Williams) an application for restaurant license, which he refused to recommend, owing to the reputation of the man, but a few days later Alderman Fales' name headed the petition asking that the license be granted. "Yesterday," said the chief, "a United States revenue officer got behind the restaurant keeper and made him take out a United States whiskey license."

THE RECORDER'S COURT.

Several Cases Were Investigated Yesterday Morning.

In the Recorder's court yesterday morning Substitute Recorder Harriss, presiding, the charge of assault with deadly weapon against Randolph Henderson, colored, was investigated and the defendant declared not guilty. A case against Gus Brown, colored charged with a similar offense, was continued until today, the State not being ready. Brown and Henderson were arrested Thursday night in connection with the shooting affair at Seventh and Princess streets Wednesday night. George Bell, colored, was required to pay the costs in a case against her for an affray and a similar case against Mary Bell, colored, was dismissed. Nellie Smith, colored, charged with disorderly conduct, whom the witnesses said "raised h—", was fined $25 and costs. She had not been able to raise the amount up to late yesterday afternoon.

"GOLDEN GEMS."

Attractive Little Volume of Thought by a Wilmington Author.

The Star has received with the compliments of the author a neat little volume, "Golden Gems," by that infinite genius and clever writer and thinker, Mr. Walter R. Kingsbury, of Wilmington. For the little volume the author makes no claim to literary merit but he simply writes "to amuse and break the monotony of life." It is dedicated to the author's very dear friend Mr. Robert W. Vincent, managing editor of the Charlotte Observer, and contains many pretty thoughts and sentiments that should commend itself to those who love the sweet and beautiful in life.

MRS. ANNIE BENTON DEAD.

Passed Away Early Yesterday Morning—Funeral Services Today

Mrs. Annie Benton, wife of Mr. L. D. Benton, passed away at her home, No. 807 Surry street, at 5 o'clock yesterday morning, after an illness of two or three weeks, many friends will regret to know. Mrs. Benton was 55 years old and is survived by her husband and a number of relatives. She was a consistent member of Immanuel Presbyterian Church, whence the funeral services will be held this morning at 9:30 o'clock, conducted by Rev. J. S. Crowley, the pastor. The interment will be in the county.

ROOSEVELT TO COME SOUTH.

Will Make Address at Appalachian Exposition at Knoxville.

New York, July 15.—Ex-President Roosevelt left by automobile for Oyster Bay late this afternoon, after spending the day in his editorial office in New York. All day long he was busy receiving visitors including a delegation which came from Tennessee. The Southerners went away well pleased for they had obtained Mr. Roosevelt's promise to deliver an address on October 7th at the Appalachian Exposition in Knoxville. After they had gone Mr. Roosevelt wore a button inscribed "Appalachian Exposition, Knoxville," which Representative Austin put in his button hole.

Before Mr. Roosevelt left his office this statement was given out there.

"While Col. Roosevelt was in Europe the arrangements for his speech in Cheyenne on August 27th were made, and the Outlook offered to provide a private car for the trip, which was accepted by cable. The trip will therefore be under the auspices of the Outlook, and the party will consist of Col. Roosevelt and his secretary, Frank Harper, together with William B. Howland, the publisher of the Outlook, and Ernest H. Abbott and Harold J. Howland, of the editorial staff."

One of the most pleasant moments of the day for the Colonel was a chat with his old friend, David E. Thompson, of Lincoln, Neb., whom he appointed ambassador to Brazil, and later ambassador to Mexico. Mr. Thompson said Roosevelt was rampant in the West.

GOLDEN RULE PLAN.

Georgia Police Have New Way of Dealing With Offenders.

Atlanta, Ga., July 15.—Following the precept of Chief of Police Fred Kohler, of Cleveland, the Atlanta police commission Tuesday night last instructed Chief of Police Jennings to inaugurate the "golden rule" plan in his department by causing the patrolmen to carefully investigate all cases and make no arrests when action could be avoided. Since the edict of the commission went into effect arrests have fallen off fifty per cent. and the rule is working splendidly.

STRIKE MAY BE AVERTED.

Situation on Pennsylvania Somewhat Improved Yesterday.

Pittsburg, Pa., July 15.—A crisis which seemed threatened today in wage negotiations between the Pennsylvania railroad and their 25,000 conductors and trainmen, was considerably relieved tonight. After a two hours' conference between railroad officials and a general committee representing the 10,000 men involved on lines west of Pittsburg, it was announced by the committee tonight that negotiations were still on and the situation was much less strained.

This came after word reached Pittsburg from Philadelphia today that the situation in the East hinged entirely on developments here and that a strike call might be issued at once if the Western officials of the road refused the men's demands.

General Manager G. L. Peck, after today's conference, stated that negotiations were still on with the men and that further meetings with the committee would be held early next week.

Philadelphia, July 15.—Nothing has developed in the wage controversy between the conductors and trainmen on the lines east of Pittsburg, and the officials of the company said that this would indicate that the breach between the two parties is closing. The general committee of the railroad men did not meet the officials of the road and nothing has passed between them since negotiations were broken off late yesterday afternoon.

Rumors that were in circulation all day that a strike would be called some time tonight were quieted by A. B. Garrelson, president of the Order of Railway Conductors, who said that a strike would not be called between tonight and 9 o'clock tomorrow morning. He declared that he did not mean that one would be called at that hour but fixed 9 o'clock as the time to which nothing will happen because the trainmen committee would not meet until after 9 A. M., when anything, he said, could happen.

The general committee of the employes held several meetings today behind closed doors and as usual, nothing was given out as to what transpired.

RIGHT NEGRO THIS TIME

One of Those Mixed Up in Shooting Affair Was at Hospital.

Feeling certain that a Randolph Henderson, colored, was mixed up in the shooting affair at Seventh and Princess streets Wednesday night, the police officers, after one negro by that name was tried in the Recorder's court and acquitted, renewed their investigations yesterday afternoon with the result that the right Randolph Henderson was located at the James Walker Memorial Hospital, wnere he went for treatment following the difficulty. Henderson was bruised about the head and face with brick bats, but was able to accompany the officers to police headquarters last night. He admitted that he was mixed up in the affair and that he did some of the shooting, being forced, he claims, to take this action in self-defense. He will probably be given a hearing in the Recorder's court today.

FROM ATLANTA, GA.

Special Train Yesterday Brought a Large Number to Beach.

The hundreds of visitors at Wrightsville Beach was augmented yesterday by the arrival of probably 200 persons from Atlanta, Ga., who reached the city at noon on a special train consisting of six Pullmans and several day coaches. Some of the visitors went directly to Wrightsville Beach on suburban cars, but a number remained in the city, where they will secure accommodations until they can be taken care of at the beach, the hotels and boarding houses being filled to overflowing yesterday. However, it is thought that practically all of the Atlanta party can be accommodated at the beach today as many of the visitors here for the annual meeting of the North Carolina Dental Society expect to leave in the afternoon. The Atlanta party will be at the beach for ten days.

ASHEVILLE MAN CONFESSES.

Implicates Liveryman in Horrible Murder There Four Days Ago.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Asheville, N. C., July 15.—J. B. Allison, the man who a few days ago shot and killed Floyd M. McGhee, driver of the police patrol wagon, late this afternoon called in Sheriff Hunter and deputies and made a confession in which he implicated Porter A. Webb, of the livery firm of W. A. Webb & Son in the murder. Webb was arrested and later released on $2,000 bond awaiting a preliminary hearing. Allison implicating Webb, claims that Webb told him to take a gun and kill McGhee and he would stand by him. He claims Webb gave him the pistol with which he killed the man. Recently it is said Webb and McGhee had a falling-out and Allison says there was a conspiracy between these to kill McGhee. The arrest caused a great sensation.

THE OHIO PLATFORM.

Keynote of Republican Campaign This Fall for Standpatters.

Beverly, Mass., July 15.—President Taft was told today that the Ohio Republican State platform, to be adopted at Columbus the latter part of this month, will contain a ringing endorsement of the entire Taft administration, including the Payne-Aldrich tariff law. It is proposed that the form of endorsement written into the Ohio platform shall serve as a model to other States that intend standing loyally by Mr. Taft.

The Ohio platform, taken in connection with the keynote speech to be delivered at the convention by Representative Nicholas Longworth, as temporary chairman, will serve as an index to the campaign to be waged throughout the country by the Republicans this Fall. The issues for the Congressional campaign will be set forth clearly. They will include an endorsement of the Payne-Aldrich tariff law as a step in the right direction. The tariff commission feature of the bill by which it is proposed in the near future to put the tariff on a scientific basis of protection, guaged by the actual differences in the cost of production at home and abroad, will be brought out most prominently. A strong denial of the charge that the tariff and the Republican party are responsible for the high cost of living, and a denunciation of graft and grafters, whether they be Republicans or Democrats, and a proclamation that the Republican Congress elected two years ago has fulfilled the party pledges, all are included in the scheme of campaign issue to be framed by the Republicans.

These facts were developed here today as a result of calls on the President by Senator Dick, of Ohio, and Wade H. Ellis, chairman of the Ohio Republican State Executive Committee. Both will remain over until tomorrow for a further conference with Mr. Taft. The latter is taking deep interest in the platform to be adopted at the Columbus convention, which will be held July 26th-28th.

The President made it plain today, however, that he will have no candidate for governor in Ohio or of any other State. Neither will he have a "personal representative" in Ohio or any other State during the campaign. He proposes that the States shall manage their own affairs. In platform declarations affecting the National administration and forming the plan of campaign "all along the line" he will continue to feel a personal and party interest.

CAUGHT UNDER AUTO.

Narrow Escape of Alabama Family on Hurry Sick Call.

Troy, Ala., July 15.—President Charles Henderson, of the Alabama commission, and a party consisting of his wife and sister, his son and two neices, narrowly escaped death this morning when the automobile in which they were hurrying to the bedside of Mr. Henderson's mother, turned turtle while running a sharp bend in the road twelve miles north of here.

Mr. Henderson jumped clear of the machine in its fall, but the others were caught beneath the car. A farmer living nearby saw the accident and rushed to the scene. With the assistance of Mr. Henderson he raised the car sufficiently to release the others. No one was seriously injured.

GEORGIA WRECK.

Passenger Train Hits Freight Wreck at Everett, Ga.

Everett, Ga., July 15.—Passengers on the Savannah-Birmingham train No. 5 westbound of the Central of Georgia Railroad had fortunate escapes from serious injury today when their train ran into a string of freight cars here. None of the passengers was hurt, but two trainmen were injured.

J. Fickling, of Macon, Ga., engineer on the passenger, was seriously injured and Conductor Hardy of the same train was slightly hurt. A caboose and several freight cars were ripped to pieces by the passenger engine which was badly battered by its plunge into the freight.

NEARLY COST A LIFE.

Georgia Lad Climbed a Telegraph Pole to Witness Baseball.

Americus, Ga., July 15.—Determination to witness a local baseball game caused the young son of Robert Cameron to narrowly escape death by electrocution Thursday afternoon. The lad climbed an electric light pole in the neighborhood of the baseball park, grasped a heavily charged wire and were held, writhing and screaming until rescued by neighbors. Both were severely burned.

BILLS OF LADING.

Cotton Growers Taking Steps to Protect Themselves.

Denniston, Tex., July 15.—Following the receipt of news here yesterday that the credit institution of the East and of Europe have reclined to advance any more money on cotton bills of lading, it was stated that the Texas State Bankers' Association will importune Governor Campbell to recommend a special law making the railroads directly responsible for the acts of their agents.

Another proposed remedy is a change in the anti-trust statute of Texas to enable the surety companies to combine for the purpose of writing insurance on bills of lading.

OUT FOR BUSINESS.

Pennsylvania Justices Anxious for Matrimonial Business.

Kittaning, Pa., July 15.—This town has three justices of the peace and business has been poor. Their offices are in the same block and when Justice Isaac Miller, tired of waiting for business, decided to advertise, he put a sign in his window reading:

"You can get married here."

Justice Edward Lee Law saw the sign and promptly he displayed this one: "Married while you wait."

Justice A. D. Moberly, not to be outdone by his competitors, displayed a more commercial bent with this sign: "Why wait? Get married here."

No increase of business at the marriage license office is yet reported.

DOUGHTON IN THE EIGHTH

Nominated By Democrats to Oppose Republican Congressman.

Statesville, N. C., July 15.—Robert L. Doughton, of Allegheny county, was nominated here this evening by the Democrats of the Eighth district to oppose Representative Charles H. Cowles, Republican, the incumbent. The nomination was made on the 58th ballot, when a deadlock seemed inevitable, through the withdrawal of one of the four candidates. Mr. Doughton is a brother of former Lieutenant Governor Doughton and one of the most prominent Democrats in the district. He is now a state senator and his brother is a member of the State House of Representatives.

FUNERAL AT MIDNIGHT.

Distinguished Tennessee Mason Laid to Rest With Honors.

Nashville, Tenn., July 15.—At the hour of midnight last night a Knight Kodash funeral was held at McKendree church over the remains of Benjamin B. Allen, the prominent Nashville Mason, who died Wednesday evening. The attendance on the service was limited to the immediate friends of the family, Scottish Rite Masons and members of the Blue Lodge, but all who were within the privileged ranks were present, the ceremony being the first of its kind over held in Tennessee.

Jefferson City, Mo., July 16.—A bill is to be presented to the next Legislature for the restoration of horse racing in Missouri, according to John D. Knapp, of St. Louis, in a communication to the Secretary of State. The betting permitted in the contemplated act would be on the pannutuel style, Knapp said. If the bill fails of passage, he says, they will submit it to the people through the initiative 1912.

Birmingham, Ala., July 15.—James Patterson and Robert McEwing, deputy sheriffs of Shelby county, Alabama, were arrested today by United States Deputy Marshal J. M. Coker, on a charge of violating the peonage law, George Chin, a negro, alleged that he was unlawfully arrested and then returned to be held in peonage at the Keystone Lime Company's works.

Fayetteville, N. C., July 15.—Over 400 bales of Cumberland grown cotton were sold here yesterday. The biggest lot was by Mr. W. W. Martin to a Norfolk concern, 335 bales at 14 7-8 cents. Several smaller lots were sold at 15 cents per pound.

—Prof. Caldwell, president of Atlantic Christian College, at Wilson, N. C., will preach at the morning and evening services at the Christian church on Dock street tomorrow.

—"Ramona," a story of the white man's injustice to the Indian, adapted from the novel of Helen Jackson, and "Cleopatra," a colored art film, are the titles of the feature pictures that will be shown at the Bijou theatre today.

—The Sunday School of Bladen Street Methodist church will have its annual outing to Carolina Beach Tuesday, July 19th. The steamer Wilmington, which conveys the party down the river, will leave at 9 A. M. and 2:30 P. M. The fare for the round trip will be only 25 cents.

—The local police received a letter yesterday from Capt. R. O. Crisp, commanding the revenue cutter Seminole, dated Norfolk, Va., July 8th, giving notice of the desertion on July 2nd, of Willie Sanford, who enlisted in Wilmington January 1st last, as second-class boy. A reward of $15 is offered for his capture.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

—Mr. J. A. Dew, of Currie, N. C., was in the city yesterday making business calls.

—The New Hanover delegation to the State convention, held in Charlotte Thursday, returned to the city yesterday at noon, with the exception of Mr. H. C. McQueen, who went to the western part of the State and Mr. Jas. H. Taylor, Jr., who returned last night.

—Messrs. John R. Murchison and Ed Schulken, of J. W. Murchison & Co., and Mr. D. E. Costin, of the N. Jacobi Hardware Co., returned yesterday morning from Charleston, S. C., where they attended the annual convention of the Retail Hardware Dealers' Association of the Carolinas.

CRAZED WITH COCAINE.

Tampa Negro Invaded Church and Dealt Death to Four.

Tampa, Fla., July 15.—Will Ellison, a negro, crazed with cocaine tonight shot and killed his mother-in-law, Celia Bryant, Rev. Jesse W. Avery, of the First African Methodist church; Henry Clark, negro organist at the church, and seriously wounded his wife, Eva Ellison, and his sister-in-law, Mary Bryant, fatally wounded Policeman Hayman, and then committed suicide.

Ellison's outbreak began at the African Methodist church, where services were in progress. He entered the church armed with a shot gun. He shouted that he was preparing to send all sinners to their reward and fired at Rev. Avery, a load of shot entering his breast causing instant death. Clark was sitting at the organ at the time and he also was shot and killed.

After firing another shot Ellison hurried from the church and went to the home of his wife's mother, Celia Bryant, where he shot his mother-in-law's head off with buckshot. When his wife and sister-in-law hurried to the front of the house he fired on them, the sister-in-law being fatally injured.

Ellison had evidently planned his crime and made ready for his escape as he had a horse tied near his mother-in-law's home. He mounted the horse and started away at a gallop. He encountered Officer Hayman and opened fire on him. The first shot took effect in the officer's left breast, just above the heart, knocking him from his horse. Hayman returned the fire and the negro darted down a dark alley. The place where he was supposed to be hiding was surrounded by officers and after a careful search the negro was found just inside a yard in a sitting posture but unconscious. He was placed in the patrol wagon and hurried to the police station to escape the wrath of the rapidly gathering mob. When the officers lifted him from the patrol wagon at the station it was found that he was dead. Examination showed that Ellison had drank most of the contents of the whiskey bottle into which he had poured a quantity of strychnine. The bottle was found by his side. Following the shooting in the church, the wildest confusion reigned. Several members of the congregation fainted and in the stampede which followed several were injured. No motive is assigned for the negro's crimes.

MAXTON MILL STARTS UP

Officers of the Elba Manufacturing Company Witness Opening.

Maxton Scottish Clef, July 15.

Messrs. T. J. Davis, President, Dr. Charles A. Bland, Vice President, J. R. VanNess, Treasurer, with a party of friends from Charlotte were in Maxton on Wednesday of this week to witness a test run of the new oil mill, fertilizer factory and gin of the Elba Manufacturing Company and all expressed themselves as being well pleased with the results of the test.

The Company has spared no expense to make this one of the most complete and up to date plants in the cotton belt and from the reports of experts in the oil mill and fertilizer business, they have more than accomplished their purpose.

The Elba Manufacturing Company also owns a large plant in Charlotte and have won a host of friends in this section by their up to date business methods.

Mr. W. O. Bennett, of Wadesboro, N. C., who was for a number of years manager of the Southern Cotton Oil Company at that place, will have charge of the new plant as manager. Mr. R. E. Johnson will have charge of the office as cashier.

The Scottish Chief placed an order for the first ton of hulls and the first sack of meal made by this mill which is located where the editor used to shoot quail—in his sporting days.

PITMAN IN FILTHY PRISON.

State Department Officials Will Use Utmost Vigilance.

Washington, July 15.—State Department officials will use the utmost vigilance in caring for William P. Pitman, the American engineer captured by Madriz while serving as a soldier for Estrada, who is now confined in a filthy prison at Managua. While no active steps were taken by the State Department today in the case, the brutal treatment is put down as another black mark against Madriz. Consul Oliveres will, it is said, make all necessary arrangements to see that Pittman is supplied with the necessaries of life.

CANNON AND PINCHOT.

Disagree as to Who Was the Father of Conservation.

Kansas City, Mo., July 15.—Gifford Pinchot and Speaker Joseph G. Cannon engaged in an extemporaneous debate upon the subject of conservation before the Knife and Fork Club in this city tonight and while each man gave expression to the highest personal regard for the other and both agreed that conservation of the Nation's natural resources should be encouraged they differed on the wohle as to who was father of conservation.

Mr. Cannon said that the late J. W. Powell, at one time director of the government geological survey, deserved the honor, but Mr. Pinchot asserted that Theodore Roosevelt was the father of conservation.

Mr. Cannon explained that he was on his way to Winfield, Kan., to make his first chautauqua appearance.

"J. W. Powell was the father of conservation," shouted the Speaker.

It was Powell, the Speaker said, who appealed to him when he was chairman of the Committee on Appropriations to do something for conservation.

"I sent Powell to Senators Hale and Allison and the Senate as a result of this conference with those Senators started legislation to withdraw all public lands that could be irrigated as well as all reservoir sites.

"The House was in favor of legislation but the Senate fought it. But in 1890 the civil sundry bill as passed contained a provision withdrawing all the water power sites, and that was the pioneer work of conservation. We lost in our fight with the Senate in our efforts to withdraw from entry all public land that could be irrigated but we won on the other proposition."

Turning to Mr. Pinchot, Mr. Cannon said: "I have the greatest personal regard for you, but I understand that you are now engaged in conservation work for the organization of a new party.

"I tell you, sir, that a party cannot stand on a single issue, although our party did stand on a single issue once in that great conflict between servile and free labor."

Speaking of his record as a public official, Mr. Cannon said:

"I admit I have made mistakes. Great God, I have been mistaken a score of times in the last thirty-five years. There are other fellows in Congress who have been wrong just as often, but they are not honest enough to admit it."

"Theodore Roosevelt was the father of conservation in this country," Mr. Pinchot said, "the National conservation association is continuing the work he started. The last session of Congress did great work and our association was largely responsible for it.

"The withdrawal bill as it passed was due largely to the efforts of the association.

"We now intend that the people must be compensated for what the private interests get. The old practice of giving perpetual grants to private interests now is impossible and the future is now safe against the oppression of monopoly.

"I believe a new school of politics is coming in the United States. This new school will decide whether the country shall be governed by money for profit or by men for human welfare."

WILL FIGHT FOR PICTURES

Notice Served on Mayor Fitzgerald by Picture M n.

Boston, July 15.—Notice has been served upon Mayor Fitzgerald by a representative of the moving picture syndicate which controls the Jeffries-Johnson fight pictures, that the syndicate intends to fight Mayor Fitzgerald's edict against the showing of the fight pictures in this city.

The representative, who is a New York man, said to be a relative of "Big Tim" Sullivan, has informed the mayor that his syndicate is determined to show the pictures and to fight in the courts if they are interferred with.

To Mayor Fitzgerald it was pointed out that the law department of New York has notified Mayor Gaynor that any edict against the fight pictures in that city would not hold good.

Mayor Fitzgerald stated, however, that Corporation Counsel Babson had handed down an opinion to him that the law will back him up in his position of the fight pictures and he said he is prepared to enforce his order, if it becomes necessary to revoke licenses to do so.

MUST PAY LIQUOR TAX

Medicines Which Have Alcoholic Percentages Under Internal Revenue.

Washington, July 15.—Sections of the country which receive their intoxicating stimulants in the guise of perfumes, essences, medicines or drugs, have been delivered a body blow by Commissioner Cabell, of the internal revenue bureau, who has given out a list of more than 200 preparations which hereafter may be handled by drug stores only after the government liquor license is paid.

Treasury Department officials said they believed that many of these preparations were concocted mainly for sale in "dry" territories, where the prohibition laws make it impossible, legally, to obtain anything with a liquor flavor.

It is estimated there are 40,000 druggists in the United States, slightly more than half of whom pay the $25 yearly special tax which permits them to sell the preparations involved. Other stores which continue to cend these mixtures will now be required to pay the tax and the United States Treasury will be enriched accordingly.

HIS OWN EXECUTOR.

Dr. Pearson Has Given Away $6,000,000 and Will Give More.

Chicago, July 15.—Dr. D. K. Pearson, the aged philanthropist, plans to enter a sanitarium to spend the rest of his days. He already has given $6,000,000 to 29 small colleges.

On April 14th, his 91st birthday, Dr. Pearson plans to make his last bequests to his colleges, which will be the last of his fortune. He will then rest, content in the sanitarium waiting for the end.

"A man is his own best executor," said Dr. Pearson, "and I intend to be mine. I will sell my home and use the money to pay my debts."

Dr. Pearson always speaks of his conditional pledges as his "debts."

"I will make no more presents until my next birthday," he said. "Then I will dispose of everything."

JURY PROBES BEEF TRUST.

Oleomargerine Frauds Also to be Considered at Chicago.

Washington, July 14.—William S. Kenyon, assistant to the Attorney General, will arrive in Chicago today, where he will assist the officials of the district attorney's office there in the presentation to the grand jury of evidence in the so-called beef trust and oleomargerine fraud cases.

The special jury called by Judge Landis meets today for the purpose The government twice before has secured indictment in the beef cases, but the defendants escaped trial because in one instance they were given an "immunity bath" for having testified to a special inquiry conducted by the government, and on the second occasion because the indictments were thrown out of court on the ground that they were defective.

HELD UP AND ROBBED.

Chicago Banker Victim of Highwayman—Later Captured.

Chicago, July 15.—A daring robber held up Jesse Binga, as he opened the door of his private bank this morning and at the point of a revolver compelled Binga to give him $2,000. He fled to State street, where a mob of citizens took up the chase. The man was captured and stabbed several times and was about to be lynched at a lamp post when the police interfered.

Oklahoma City, Okla., July 15.—Penniless because of their long strike, many miners in the coal districts of this State are said to be in destitute circumstances. An appeal to the State Federation of Labor has been made in their behalf and it is expected that some action looking to their relief will be taken at the annual meeting of the Federation next month.

New Orleans, La., July 15.—With the grand lodge room of the Masons here furnished the unique setting of the ceremony, A. P. Dennison and Mrs. Roma K. Stiles, partners in business, last night entered into the closer partnership of marriage. Their home is in English, Texas. It was the first time in the history of Masonry in the city that a wedding ceremony took place in a lodge room of the order.

New Orleans, July 14.—A quiet fourth of July found a marked contrast here today in the celebration by the French colony of the fall of the Bastile. The tri-colored flags and streamers bedecked the principal streets of the city, bands sounding the Marseillaise led a long parade and a fete in one of the local parks was scheduled to culminate the festivities.

Gettysburg, Pa., July 15.—The Summer army maneuvers on the famous battlefield of Gettysburg were begun in earnest today. Besides a large force of regular troops the participants include militia regiments from Maryland, Virginia, Pennsylvania, Delaware, New Jersey and the District of Columbia.

Belmont, N. C., July 15.—Bishop Lee Haid, head of Belmont Abbey, celebrated his 61st birthday today. Belmont Abbey has just been elevated by the Pope to the dignity of cathedral abbey, which gives it premier rank over all abbeys in North America.

London, July 15.—The coronation of King George has been fixed for June 22nd, 1911.

GENUINE ECZEMA REMEDY.

New Remedy That Cures Eczema Quickly.

J. Hicks Bunting Co. has sold dozens of jars of Hokara in the last few weeks, and although they offered to refund the purchase price to any dissatisfied purchaser, not one jar has been returned.

While this is surprising in itself, yet the most marvelous thing to them is the reports of chronic cases of eczema that have been cured by this simple skin food. People who have suffered with scales, scabs and even bleeding itching have found relief and cure in Hokara.

No matter where the eczema, pimples or other breaking out occurs, whether on the face, hands, legs or body, the application of Hokara will give quick relief, and even the worst or most chronic cases will be cured in a short time.

You can buy a liberal-sized jar at the very low price of 25c and with every package goes their guarantee to refund the money if it is not satisfactory. Larger size, 50c.

If the skin trouble is caused by impure blood or if the bowels are inactive, use Hokara Blood Tablets. They cool and cleanse the blood and regulate the bowels in a natural way.

The messages from the merchants are always interesting—and usually affect the "state of your purse."

NO REASON FOR IT

When Wilmington Citizens Show the Certain Way Out.

There can be no just reason why any reader of this will continue to suffer the tortures of an aching back, the annoyance of urinary disorders, the dangers of diabetis or any kidney ills when relief is so near at hand and the most positive proof given that they can be cured. Read what a Wilmington citizen says:

Mrs. M. E. Bordeaux, 510 S. Second St., Wilmington, N. C., says: "I can recommend Doan's Kidney Pills, as I used them with good results. I had dull pains through my back and some days they were so severe that I could hardly get about to do my housework. Added to this was a difficulty with the kidney secretions, which caused me a great deal of annoyance. The contents of one box of Doan's Kidney Pills, procured from Robert R. Bellamy's drug store, stopped the backache and also disposed of the kidney weakness."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

A SHARP ADVANCE IN COTTON

Affect of the Announcement That Indictments Against Bull Leaders Were Defective—45 Points Above Previous Day.

New York, July 15.—The covering movement which began shortly after the announcement that the indictments against the bull leaders have been found defective ever became more urgent and excited during the day's trading in the cotton market and July contracts sold up to 16.44 or 45 points above the closing figures of last night and within a point of the high point of the season made last December.

At this level the demand slackened and prices later in the day eased off a few points under scattered selling, but the market closed firm with prices net unchanged to 51 points higher July being quoted at 16.34. The market opened steady at an advance of 16 points to a decline of 2 points the late positions being influenced by disappointing cables and the more favorable showing of the weather map. The covering movement which began at the opening became more and more urgent however and before midday July contracts had sold 2.50 per bale above yesterday's close while August shorts were nearly as nervous and forced that position up to 15.12, or 36 points net higher. There was a little scattered selling by trade interests, presumably against shipments pending from the South, but generally speaking shorts had to buy their contracts from the bull leaders and it was estimated that not more than 15,000 or 20,000 bales of July changed hands all day. As soon as shorts withdrew, there was some local selling of the new crop months on expectations of better crop reports, and these positions which at the best had shown a gain of only 4 to 5 points eased off to a net loss of about 2 points. It is now estimated that about 100 bales of cotton will be delivered on July in addition to the 45,000 bales already delivered since the first of the month while estimates as to the speculative short interests over and above the cotton to be brought here vary from a few thousand to about 5,000 bales. Southern spots were 1-8 to 1-2c net higher.

Receipts of cotton at the ports today 8,987 bales against 4,776 last week and 2,499 last year.

For the week 30,000 bales against 21,744 last week and 31,495 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans 1,359 bales against 485 last year and at Houston 204 bales against 466 last year.

Spot closed quiet 40 points higher; middling uplands 16 40; middling gulf 16.65; sales 5,300 bales.

Cotton futures opened steady and closed firm.

REVIEW OF COTTON FOR WEEK

Violent Advance of July Option Principal Event of Week on the Market—Prominent Bulls Figure—Conditions.

New York, July 15.—The principal event of the week has been a violent advance in the July option due to covering of shorts among local operators and also for Wall street account. But for this the prices would have brought a lower level as the weather of late has been more favorable over many sections of the cotton belt. The strength of July, however, has overshadowed every other feature of the situation. Some estimates current on the size of the July short interest in the aggregate range from 40,000 to 50,000 bales.

Prominent bulls have sold openly at times, apparently for the purpose of preventing a more violent advance at this time. One New Orleans bull leader in New York on Thursday offered to sell 100,000 bales of July at 17 cents. Some thought this was a hint that the bears would be allowed to cover at that price or a lower one. According to a Liverpool dispatch received here on Thursday some 30,000 to 40,000 bales will arrive here from the English market in time for delivery on July delivery. One the other hand freight room is said to have been engaged for large shipments from New York to Europe and yesterday nearly 7,000 bales left this port for the continent. Local and Philadelphia spot interests have sold July during the week supposedly against cotton that is coming here. August has also shown considerable strength of late. The short interest in that month is believed to be much larger than that in July. Some put the bear account in August at over 200,000 bales and it is expected that decidedly interesting developments would be witnessed before that month goes out. As to the new crop months they have moved within a narrow groove. Many are bearish and would be inclined to sell them aggressively on the improved weather of late, but for the strength of the old crop position. This acts as a deterrent on bearish operations. Beneficial rains have occurred in Texas and Oklahoma of late and the crop reports from Texas have in very many cases been favorable. Some estimates of the Texas crop are being increased. Meantime trade reports are quite the reverse of cheerful. Curtailment of production continues to spread, the spot markets at the South are quiet, sales of the actual cotton at Liverpool have been small and speculation is confined to professional traders. Today, however, there was another sharp rise in the old crop months, especially July, on renewed covering of shorts. New crop months were easier at one time on improved weather at the South, but they became firmer before the close on covering.

THE GRAIN MARKET.

Chicago, July 15.—High record prices for the season were made today for wheat. Buying was so eager as to be almost hysterical. Much more of it than usual being apparently of an eleventh hour sort. The closed, however, was strong and within 1-8 to 3-4c of the top figures of the day. Staggering estimates of crop damage from heat and drought in the American northwest and in Southeastern Europe were the incentives. Compared with last night, net advances in grain were: Wheat 2 3-8 to 2 1-2 to 2c; corn 1-8 to 1-4 to 5-8; oats 1-2 to 3-4. Another wrench upward was given to July pork, 27 1-2c. All else in hog products finished 2 1-2 to 17 1-2c down.

Cash close: Wheat No. 3 red new 1.11; No. 2 red new 1.08 to 1.10; No. 3 red new 1.07 to 1.09; No. 2 hard new 1.12 to 1.18; No. 3 hard new 1.09 to 1.11; No. 3 hard 1.07 to 1.09; No. 1 northern 1.22 to 1.25; No. 2 northern 1.22 to 1.24; No. 3 spring 1.15 to 1.22; durum 85 to 97.

THE DEPRESSION IN STOCKS

Market Displayed Its Narrow Limitations in Every Way Yesterday. Effect of Reports of Bad Wheat Conditions.

New York, July 15.—The stock market today displayed its narrow limitations in every way. Dealings were small and fluctuations narrow. The oppressive weather and the apathetic interest in the dealings played their part in the showing. Buying orders uncovered on declines intimated the bears and their efforts to secure stocks showed how scarce were the offerings.

Those efforts were not pursued urgently on the advances in prices and with the subsidence of this demand the buying orders disappeared and left prices to drift in an almost idle market. Selling pressure was not conspicuous at any level and it was this fact which gave the market its negative strength and power of resistance. Last prices were not much changed on the day. A depressing effect was exerted by the fresh show of strength in the wheat markets, especially those in the Northwest. Renewed reports of bad Spring wheat conditions poured into the market, increased attention being given to the Canadian situation. This was responsible for the weakness of Canadian Pacific. The spurt in cotton added to the influence of the wheat news, although the exemption of new crop futures in cotton from the movement pointed to more purely market conditions for the rise in that commodity.

The demand for Amalgamated Copper was attributed to an uncovered short interest built up in the course of the recent heavy decline in that stock. The rally in its price was accompanied by rumors of betterment in the copper trade situation and a recovery in the price of copper in London.

The Pennsylvania labor situation weighed on the market, although the effect on Pennsylvania stock itself was slight.

The prospects were for a strong bank statement tomorrow. The inflow of currency from the interior has been heavy. The first shipment of imported gold arrived today, amounting to over $1,800,000. The general result promises to be an adition of eight or ten million dollars to bank cash by tomorrow's bank statement. The tone of the time-money market here was slightly easier, especially for the shorter periods.

Bonds were irregular. Total sales par value $1,416,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call. Total sales stocks today were 309,500 shares.

TRADE DEPENDS ON CROP.

Quiet in Most Lines of Industry—Bradstreet's Review.

New York, July 15.—Bradstreet's tomorrow will say: Quiet still characterizes most lines of trade and industry with operations limited by vacations and Summer shut downs. The first of the Fall buyers are in the leading markets, but their operations are conducted with caution or conservatism pending clearer views of crop outcome. Trade as a whole is claimed to be equal or in excess of last year at this period. Collections are generally classed as from fair to slow. In the Southwest the better than earlier expected results of the Winter wheat harvest and satisfactory progress by corn have made for a better feeling as to future trade, though immediate demand has not yet picked up materially. At the South the trade is quiet. At the larger Eastern markets trade is still largely of a waiting character. Curtailment is still largely in evidence and the iron and steel, cotton, woolen, coal, lumber and coke trades.

Business failures in the United States for the week ending July 14, were 202 against 182 last week and 206 in the same week of 1909.

DEMAND FOR JULY.

Advance Quotations 51 Points—Liverpool Ignored It—Better Crops.

(Special Star Telegram.)

New York, July 15.—With a dull market in other positions the demand for July advanced its quotations 51 points during the morning. This bulge has been foreshadowed for some time and was solely on demand and not on bidding by the bulls. Liverpool, however, ignored the advance and closed lower than yesterday. Outside of short interest the general public is little interested and the new crop showed no sympathetic movement. The weather is the matter of importance, and the impression prevails that the crop is generally doing better. Views are mixed as to the August Bureau figure, which will give a basis for intelligent opinion.

The certificated stock gained slighly during the past week and will probably increase for a while. In-signt figures for the week 29,000 bales, last week 17,000, last year 40,000. Total season to date 10,160,000, last year 13,539,000.

VISIBLE SUPPLY OF COTTON.

Secretary Hester's Statement Shows 2,100,217 Bushels.

New Orleans, July 15.—Secretary Hester's statement of the world's visible supply of cotton issued today shows the total visible to be 2,100,217 bales against 2,251,808 last week and 2,792,066 last year. Of this the total of American cotton is 1,134,217 bales against 1,220,808 last week and 2,081,066 last year, and of all other kinds, including Brazil, Egypt, India, etc., 966,000 against 1,031,000 last week and 711,000 last year.

Of the world's visible supply of cotton there is now afloat and held in Great Britain and continental Europe 1,093,000 against 1,910,000 last year; in Egypt 68,000 against 92,000 last year; in India 619,000 against 354,000 last year; and in the United States 320,000 against 436,000 last year.

TAFT AND TEDDY.

Believed That Roosevelt Will Endorse the Administration.

(By Clyde H. Tavenner.)

Washington, July 14.—Regular Republicans are declaring more boldly than ever that Roosevelt will indorse Taft.

Vice President Sherman says that Roosevelt "will indorse the Payne-Aldrich Tariff law and the Taft administration in every particular."

I do not believe it. I do not believe it because I read Roosevelt to be too clever a politician to put his O. K. on such a band of criminals as that which dominates the Republican party.

I wish to make no apology for the use of the word "criminals." I employ the term advisedly.

The Republican party is today controlled body and soul by the sugar trust, the steel trust, the harvester trust, the lumber trust and other similar organizations, each and every one of which is in existence in violation of the anti-trust laws of the country.

Having no legal right to exist, each of these greedy monopolies is a criminal corporation, and if the attorney general of the United States would do his full duty they would be forced to dissolve.

But if Roosevelt does endorse the Taft administration it will be and ought to be his Waterloo, following in the due allotted time his triumphant "return from Elba." If Roosevelt openly indorses such stand-patters as Taft and Senator Lodge, of Massachusetts, it will mean that he deceived the people as to his true sentiment as completely as the prize fighter Jeffries deceived the sporting world as to his real physical condition.

Roosevelt will not dare endorse Taft for these reasons:

First, Taft personally promised revision downward, and then personally signed a tariff bill which revised the tariff upward.

Second, Taft personally aided Boss Aldrich to cheat the people out of an income tax, which would take some of the burden of taxation off of the poor and place it upon the rich.

Third, Taft personally used all the power at his command to prevent Speaker Cannon from being dethroned.

Fourth, Taft upheld Ballinger after the latter had been exposed and discredited as having given aid to Alaska coal land grabbers.

Fifth, Taft counseled with Aldrich, Lodge, Hale, Guggenheim, Penrose, Flint, Cannon, Fordney and other representatives of the special interests, and refused to accept advice from such men as LaFollette, Dolliver, Cummins, Clapp and Murdock.

Sixth, Taft is personally seeking to defeat LaFollette and other genuine insurgents because they endeavored to revise the tariff in conformity with the Taft pre-election speeches.

MOTOR DAY WITH ELKS.

Featured National Reunion at Detroit Yesterday.

Detroit, Mich., July 15.—Today was motor day at the National Reunion of Elks in this city. Motors maneuvred on land, water and in the air for the entertainment of the visiting delegates.

In the afternoon something more than 2,000 automobiles representing nearly every design made paraded along Woodward Avenue, Walter Brookins, Duval LaCheppelle and Arch Hoxey made aeroplane flights and three classes of motor boats raced over a 16-mile course around Belle Isle in preliminary events.

Tomorrow it is announced Brookins will attempt to better his altitude record made at Atlantic City and the motor boats including enries from Cincinnati, Cleveland and Buffalo will compete for the $1,000 Elks trophy and for minor prizes.

WIRELESS FOR THE NAVY.

Four Towers to be Erected in Washington for the Service.

Washington, July 15.—Instead of building a gigantic wireless telegraph tower in Washington higher than the Washington monument, the Navy Department has decided to construct four towers between four and five hundred feet in height on the highest available point in the District of Columbia.

The purpose of the towers will be to afford the Navy Department the best opportunity possible for communicating without interruption with its ships far out at sea and with the land stations far removed. Tests recently made by the Navy Department leads to the belief that communication with ships in the day time fifteen hundred miles away and at night three thousand miles distant will be possible.

Muskogee, Okla., July 15.—While playing the leading part in a local talent "Wild West" play at Stone Bluff near here last night, Jacob Winkler was shot and instantly killed by Everett Olden, also a member of the cast. A ball cartridge which had become mixed with the blanks was responsible for the tragedy.

$54,658,721; Philadelphia fourth, $42,570,770; St. Louis fifth, $22,422,929, and San Francisco sixth, $13,124,987. The average cost of new fire-resisting buildings in the 15 cities reporting the greatest cost for this class ranged from $3,151 in Philadelphia to $65,384 in New York. In new brick buildings Brooklyn was second, Chicago third and Philadelphia fourth. In stone buildings, New York was second and San Francisco third. In concrete buildings Seattle was second and Philadelphia third.

The number of permits issued in 51 cities increased from 174,594 in 1908, when there was a decrease from 1907 of 12,851 to 213,498 in 1909, a gain of 38,904, or 22.28 per cent. The number of permits or buildings does not seem to bear any definite relation to the cost of the operations, as several cities showing increases in cost of buildings showed decreases in number of permits or buildings, while some of those showing decreases in cost showed increases in number of permits or buildings.

The average cost of operations under the total permits issued in 51 cities was $3,616, in 1909, against $3,243 in 1908. In New York the average cost per building was $24,387 in 1909, against $19,305 in 1908; in Chicago it was $4,341 in 1909, against $6,327 in 1908; in Brooklyn, $4,672 in 1909, against $4,259 in 1908; in Philadelphia, $2,480 in 1909, against $2,107 in 1908; in San Francisco, $4,536 in 1909, against $4,706 in 1908.

For the first time an attempt was made to collect statistics of the building operations by character of buildings and also by additions, alterations, and repairs to each class of buildings. Figures reported from 128 cities gave details showing the kinds of buildings erected and the additions, alterations and repairs to each clas of buildings under 264,534 permits at a cost of $903,385,954, the new buildings constituting 90.3 per cent of the cost and the additions, alterations and repairs 9.7 per cent.

Of the cost of these new buildings, 73.24 per cent. was for fire-resisting buildings and 26.76 per cent. was for wooden buildings of the total cost of additions, alterations and repairs, 65.55 per cent. was for fire-resisting buildings and 34.45 per cent. was for wooden buildings. The average cost in 1909 for new wooden buildings was $2,269; for new brick buildings $9,522; for stone buildings, $11,679; for concrete buildings, $17,999, and for miscellaneous fire resisting buildings, $63,890.

TEXAS CATTLE INFECTED.

Insurance Companies Cancel Policies Upon Stock in One Section.

Houston, July 15.—Charbon in southeast Texas and southwest Louisiana has reached a serious state and that section is being denuded of live stock.

Live stock insurance companies today announced the cancellation of all policies upon animals in that section. One Jefferson county, Texas, farm is reported to have lost 500 mules, horses and cattle as a result of the disease.

Gov. Campbell has been asked to submit the matter to the special session of the Legislature, which will convene on Tuesday with the view of creating an infected zone and placing men in charge.

The Texas State live stock sanitary commission has already quarantined against the affected district.

AUTO ENGINES FOR MACON.

Two Additional Machines for Protection of Georgia City.

Macon, Ga., July 15.—Arrangements have been made by Mayor Moore and the fire committee of the city council to purchase two more motor-driven fire engines to be used in Vineville and at fire headquarters.

A site at the intersection of Georgia and Washington avenues and Monroe street has been selected, from which point the fire-fighting will be done in Vineville.

The fire underwriters have assured the city officials that the insurance reduction will be given with the arrangements suggested.

GUARDED BY SHOT GUN

Son of Dr. Crippen Who Didn't Want to Be Seen.

Los Angeles, Cal., July 15.—While the father of Dr. Hawley H. Chippen, sought in connection with the murder of his wife, known on stage as Belle Elmore in London, expressed himself quite freely here in regard to the case, Hawley Crippen, the son of the accused man, was protected from interviewers last night by his father-in-law, who took up a position in front of the home with a rifle.

The young man and his wife make their home with Mrs. Crippen's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Merwick.

YOUNG GATES UNDER KNIFE.

Charles, Son of J. W. Gates, Attacked by Appendicitis.

New York, July 14.—Charles G. Gates, son of John W. Gates, was operated upon here this afternoon for appendicitis. The operation was performed at the New York Hospital, by Dr. Fellowes Davis, Jr., and was pronounced successful. It is expected Mr. Gates will be about in three weeks.

Mr. Gates was taken ill in Paris several weeks ago. He returned here in company with his father on Tuesday.

DEAD AT 110 IN POORHOUSE.

Walker Was a Steady Smoker and Recalled Incidents of Three Wars.

Baltimore, Md., July 15.—George Walker, for the past five years an inmate of Bay View Poor Asylum, died today in the institution at the remarkable age of 110 He appeared before one of the police magistrates five years ago, and was sent to the home.

"Old Man" Walker as he was known by the inhabitants of Bay View Asylum, was a great tobacco smoker and was rarely seen without his pipe. He would sit for hours at a time telling stories of the long ago to interested listeners. He had a wonderful memory and recalled incidents of the war of 1812, the Mexican war and the civil war.

DENTISTS ELECT THEIR OFFICERS

yesterday afternoon at which it was decided to hold a night session and elect officers and select the next place of meeting, in order to leave time for the presentation of papers at the session this morning, many papers on the programme having not yet been reached.

Clinics in Afternoon.

The remainder of the afternoon was devoted to clinics, Dr. J. W. Stanley, of this city, supervisor. This feature of the meeting was the most complete and the most successful in the history of the organization and to Dr. Stanley is due the thanks of the entire society for his ceaseless efforts. Heretofore there have been only about eight or ten clinics while this year's programme called for 44. Dr. Stanley had present 46 patients, but owing to the lack of chairs some of the clinics were not given. The following are the clinics given yesterday afternoon: Jackson regulating appliance, Dr. J. H. Wheeler, Greensboro; The moss fiber inlay, Dr. C. L. Alexander, Charlotte; Extracting under local anesthesia. Taking a correct impression, Dr. Geo. B. Patterson, Fayetteville; Removable bridge work and building up badly broken down roots for fixed bridge work by the casting process, using low fusing metal, Dr. W. E. Lambright, Atlanta, Ga.; Saddle gold inlay with similar foil filling, Dr. J. H. Ihrie, Sanford; Clasp plates, Dr. Claude Hughes, Atlanta, Ga.; Diatoric teeth in bridge work, Dr. S. W. Moore, Baltimore, Md.; Casting on porcelain, Dr. J. S. Spurgeon, Hillsboro; Ascher's artificial enamel, Dr. G. W. Whitsett, Grensboro; Cohesive adhesive filling: Obtunding sensitive dentine, Dr. J. A. Sinclair, Asheville; One method of replacing broken facings without removing bridge, Dr. J. G. Reid, Marion; Gold filling, using Keeton Williams' gold, Dr. L. T. Smith, Greenville; "Showing the Skiagraph Emphasizing the Importance of the X-ray for Accurate Diagnosis in Dental Surgery," Dr. M. D. Huff, Atlanta, Ga.; "The Moss Gold Fibre Inlay," Dr. Caldwell, of Charlotte, N. C.

Last night the dentists were delightfully entertained at an attractive souvenir dance given at Lumina in their honor by the Tidewater Power Company. The dentists and members of their families were well represented, hundreds of other beach visitors attended and quite a large number went down from the city.

The concluding session of the convention will be held this morning at which reports from committees will be received and a number of papers will be read. While many of the dentists expect to leave on the afternoon and evening trains in order to spend Sunday at home, a large number will remain at the beach until next week.

GOTCH NOT WILLING.

Will be No Fight Between Wrestler and Jack Johnson.

Fort Dodge, Iowa, July 15.—Frank Gotch, the heavyweight wrestling champion, declared it would be impossible for him to accept Jim Corbett's offer to train for a fight with Johnson.

Gotch believes if he keeps his title in the mat game he will have about all he can handle without entering the squared circle.

"I saw that dispatch telling what Corbett thought of a match between myself and Johnson," said Gotch, talking over the telephone from his farm near Humboldt. "For some reason or other I don't think much of it. I am not worrying about anything these days, merely rusticating on my farm and keeping in training by a little hard work now and then. I will stay here two months at least."

Gotch knows he can easily get a match in eight months, the time limit set by Corbett. He is in fine condition now. The world's champion wrestler returned recently from Reno, and his version of the fight is that Jeffries could not get in shape. He does not believe Jeffries will ever fight again.

Gotch has divulged no plans for future matches, but has assured friends in a joking way that he will quit the mat. No one here believes him, however, as the call of the money is too strong to resist. He recently bought a $3,000 automobile. He has had several narrow escapes, but is considered a good driver.

MOTOR BOAT CRUISE.

Orangeburg Power Craft to Start Tuesday for Charleston and Islands.

Orangeburg, S. C., July 15.—On next Tuesday morning at 7 o'clock a fleet of motor boats will begin a pleasure cruise from this city, down the Edisto river, with Charleston and the islands as their objective points.

The boats' crews and passengers, as now arranged, are as follows: Boat No. 1, W. L. Glover, cashier of the Edisto Savings Bank, and R. H. Jennings, president of the Chamber of Commerce, crew; Boat No. 2, M. E. Matthews, manager of the Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph exchange, and R. A. Walter, a prominent planter, crew; boat No. 3, H. O. Dawson, agent Southern Express Company, and O. W. Spahr, merchant, crew; boat No. 4, James C. Fairy, dealer in live stock, and T. R. McCants, planter, crew. As passengers, and, if need be, assistants to the crews, will be A. H. Moss, attorney; William McC. Walter, planter, and Clayton Berghaus, contractor.

A jolly good time is anticipated by the members of the party in fishing and other seasonable sports along the route and at the destinations.

Several weeks will be consumed on the cruise, as these gentlemen have found it a most enjoyable way of spending their holidays.

THE SOUTHERN NATIONAL BANK

Washington, July 15.—William Geo. Jordan has a big contract on his hands As the first secretary of the house of governors it has fallen to his lot to keep peace and harmony among the various State governors of the United States, get them to meet once a year, get them to do something more than talk and make the organization one of some value to the country. The house of governors was started by Roosevelt when he was President. He called a meeting of governors to discuss questions of National importance, and now the house of governors has been organized with the intention of dealing with conservation questions, interstate laws and other general government regulations.

TRAGEDY IN CHICAGO

Real Estate Man Shoots Young Widow and Kills Himself.

Chicago, July 15.—Charles W. Rigdon, 65 years old, well known for many years in Chicago real estate circles and father of Jay A. Rigdon, assistant cashier of the Hibernian Banking Association, seriously wounded Mrs. Emma Deufex, a young widow, and then shot and killed himself in the offices of Joan C. Fetzer in the Bedford building late today.

Although presenting to the police a mystery as to the direct motive for the tragedy, Inspector Lavin says the shooting is the outgrowth of an involved romance in which love and business were hopeless entangled. The police say Mrs. Deufex has been a close friend of Rigdon's for several years and that Rigdon had given her money and stocks and then had quarreled with her. Mrs. Deufex, the police say, called on Rigdon to carry out certain alleged promises, and, despite his refusal, persisted in going to see him and in attempting to effect a settlement.

Although Mr. Deufex was accompanied to the Fetzer offices, where had a private room, by Miss Mary Wilson, of Hinsdale, Ill., and Mr. Fetzer talked with the two women previously to the shooting the police have been unable to discover the exact conversation that took place between Rigdon and Mrs. Deufex.

Pending a coroner's inquest Mrs. Deufex is being treated under guard at St. Lukes hospital and Miss Wilson is held at the Harrison street police station. Mrs. Deufex is said to be from St. Paul, Minn.

Two unsigned letters found in the dead man's coat have been secured by the police and being used in efforts to unravel the tragedy. Both letters were written by a woman. One severely criticises Rigdon and the other addresses him in endearing terms.

Mr. Fetzer rated as a millionaire, is a former member of the Chicago board of education, was receiver for the local bank wrecked by Paul N. Stensland, and for a number of years real estate manager for the McCormick estate.

AN AGED PRELATE.

Dr. Thomas Bowman, Seventy Years in the Methodist Ministry.

Orange, N. J., July 15.—Right Rev. Dr. Thomas Bowman, the senior bishop of the Methodist Episcopal denomination, quietly celebrated his 93rd birthday today at the home of his son-in-law in East Orange. Many members of the M. E. clergy and laity remembered him with messages of congratulation and good wishes.

Bishop Bowman has the distinction of having lived longer than any other Methodist bishop. Born in Berwick, Pa., he spent his youth in New England, whither he was sent by his parents on account of his delicate health. He graduated from Dickinson college in 1837, and later was an instructor at the college. In 1844 he founded Dickinson Seminary at Williamsport and remained at the head of the institution for ten years.

Bishop Bowman has been a licensed preacher for over 70 years, the scriptural span of human life. He was elected bishop 38 years ago, since when he has visited all the conferences of his church in America, Europe, India, China and Japan. He was chaplain of the United States Senate during the last two years of the administration of President Lincoln.

OVER THE CLINCHFIELD.

Representative Business Men Are Going on the Excursion.

Columbia, S. C., July 15.—The plans for the excursion of the Chambers of Commerce of the State over the Clinchfield were announced today.

The call for the start from Spartanburg on July 26 in two special trains of five Pullmans and a diner each and return to Spartanburg late on the 28th.

A rate of $17 covers transportation, Pullman fare and meals. About 75 representative business men from Columbia will take the trip.

Santa Cruz, Cal., July 15.—One of the largest open air dog shows ever held on the Pacific coast was opened in the Santa Cruz casino today and will continue over tomorrow. The display of Pekinese spaniels, Cocker spaniels and Boston and Irish terriers is especially notable.

HAMMERSTEIN TO RETURN

Grand Opera Magnate to Re-enter the Field in New York.

New York, July 15.—Oscar Hammerstein is going to "come back" in the operatic field. True, he is under certain limitations in view of his recently signed contract with the Metropolitan Opera Company but he has other plans. Although ill when he stepped from the Lusitania today after a trip abroad the impresario subsequently issued a statement telling what he proposes to do. Here is part of it:

"I am out of grand opera in New York, Philadelphia, Boston and Chicago and within a radius of 20 miles of these cities. But I have not given up the field. My future labors will be confined to circles outside these cities; I have already taken steps to reorganize a grand opera company to tour the country the season after next."

The Manhattan opera house in this city, which he still owns, will, he says, become a home of comic opera.

Houston, Texas, July 15—Two children of Joseph Magee, aged four and six years respectively, were burned today at Rockdale. The children were playing with a kerosene oil can and in some way the oil became ignited, the clothing of the children catching fire and burning them so severely that they died within a short time.
